CURRICULUM

PRESCHOOL: "My God will meet all my needs." (Philippians 4:19, NIV). What a powerful thought. God will meet all our needs. Notice the verse says needs and not wants. That's hard for adults to remember, even more for preschoolers. So this month, we will talk about our basic needs and stories where God provided.

ELEMENTARY: Our memory verse for the month is Galatians 6:9, NIV: "Let us not become tired of doing good. At the right time we will gather a crop if we don't give up." When we have endurance, we can know that it will be worth it. We'll experience the joy of finishing what we started.

Family Dedication Celebration
Sunday, May 11, 2014
9:45 am & 11:30 am

WHO should be dedicated?

Family dedications are for newborns through the preschool years. It does NOT take the place of a "baby baptism". We believe the Bible teaches that Baptism is for those who have personally put their faith in Jesus.

WHAT does dedication include?

Parents make a promise to God, in front of the Body of Christ, that they will raise their child according to the Word of God. A Pastor, along with the congregation, agrees in prayer for the parents & the child.

WHY do we dedicate children?

The essence of this practice is found in 1 Samuel 1-2, where we see Hannah, who had a deep personal relationship with God, pray & ask that she be given a child on the condition that she would then give the child back to the Lord. We believe this biblical example inspires this valuable tradition that we uphold as a church.

WHAT are the requirements of the parents?

Children learn by example, not only by what we tell them. Parents who do not have a personal relationship with God cannot teach a child the proper way to live a Christian life. This means that at least one of the child's parents must be born again and he or she makes the promise to God that the child will be brought up according to God's Word. This commitment to godly parenting should include regular and active participation within the church. We do not dedicate babies/children whose parents are not married and live together. The Scriptures are clear as to the sexual union being exclusively reserved for the institution of marriage.
