

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
MASTER CHIEF PETTY OFFICER OF THE NAVY

MCPON's 2013-2014 CPO 365 Guidance

Let me start by congratulating the entire CPO mess for last year's extremely successful CPO 365 season. It was your creativity, professionalism and expertise that carried the day. As it was last year CPO 365 remains your success story.

You will notice that this year's guidance will read very much like last years, with the exception of a few minor changes that were derived from fleet feedback.

Messes spanning the globe have infused CPO 365 with their own unique spirit. As CPOs move between duty stations, that spirit becomes transient and takes root in distant places. Good ideas born in Pohang are suddenly part of the plan in Pensacola, and a training curriculum devised in Norfolk takes center stage in Naples. Regardless of geographic coordinates, it is open minds and focused objectives that are the common denominators of enduring progress. Vertical and horizontal collaboration among counterparts also has phenomenal potential in dispersing best practices. It is okay, even encouraged, to share how your Messes are keeping the fire alive for 12 months and to emulate what others are doing that might work well inside our own lifelines.

The ingenuity of our Chiefs in fusing mission requirements with opportunities to conduct productive training will keep us methodically moving in the right direction. I want to reiterate the significance of instilling fundamentals like good order and discipline, our Core Values and the Navy Ethos early on, and of reinforcing them throughout the year with practical application. Additionally, look for occasions to incorporate interaction with the Wardroom. Many officers I've met expressed their enthusiasm for enhancing the relationship between our communities. We should leverage every chance to do so as these are the future flag officers, commanding officers and department heads who will take our Fleet over the horizon.

CPO 365 consists of two phases. Phase 1 starts September 17 and concludes when the NAVADMIN announcing CPO selection results is released. All FCPOs will participate throughout the duration of Phase 1 regardless of whether they are board-eligible or not.

Phase 2 starts when the NAVADMIN announcing CPO selection is released and concludes with the Pinning Ceremony. All FCPOs will remain engaged in primary training events during Phase 2 with the understanding there may be specific instances where CPO Selectees conduct separate sessions (i.e. fundraising, CPO Selectee Leadership Course and others to be determined by CMCs).

When the selection results for Chief Petty Officers are announced, take the opportunity to congratulate our FCPOs on their selection and conduct a celebratory meet-and-greet for them and
