Independent Thinking on MFL Crista Hazell, 2020-03-09 Crista Hazell's Independent Thinking on MFL How to make modern foreign language teaching exciting inclusive and relevant takes teachers on a tour of how to get the teaching of a new language right Foreword by Ian Gilbert Learning a new language has the power to transform a life as well as help break down the barriers that seem to be re-emerging between nations cultures and people In the UK MFL teaching has always had to battle with the everyone speaks English argument not to mention that for so many all that remains of their years learning a foreign language is bitte por favor or s'il vous plait But with teachers like Independent Thinking Associate Crista Hazell at the front of the class things can be very different Drawing on her many years of experience as an MFL teacher and head of department Crista shares tips techniques and inspirational ideas geared to help teachers build confidence increase enjoyment and improve outcomes as they take their MFL teaching to a whole new level Crista provides a range of strategies from how to hook students in the minute they enter the classroom to ensuring that the vocabulary sticks designed to help learners develop confidence take risks and enjoy the challenge that learning a new language brings She also offers ideas and advice on how to make learning new vocabulary and grammar a great deal more effective and empowers teachers to open up the benefits and enjoyment of learning a language to all students not just those in the top sets Ultimately however her book sets out to help teachers create engaging relevant and memorable learning experiences in the MFL classroom and encourage their learners to become lifelong and passionate linguists For MFL teachers and heads of languages departments in primary schools secondary schools and colleges Independent Thinking on MFL has been shortlisted for the Educational Book Award in the 2021 Education Resources Awards So You Want to be a Doctor? Stephan Sanders, Harveer Dev, David

Metcalf, 2013-10 This is a guide to getting into medical school Each chapter guides you through another step of the process from deciding if medicine is for you and choosing a medical school to passing UKCAT and BMAT exams applying to Oxbridge and getting through the interview Know it All, Find it Fast for Youth Librarians and Teachers Christine Donnelly, 2012 A brand new version of the best selling enquiry desk reference text Know it All Find it Fast specifically designed for those working with children and young people in schools public libraries and at home Including an invaluable overview of the education system and the school curriculum as well as a comprehensive listing of useful resources by topic this A-Z covers school subjects from science and maths to reading and literacy and more general themes such as children's health wellbeing and hobbies Each topic is broken down into useful sections that will help to guide your response Typical questions outline common queries such as Have you got any information about volcanoes Considerations provides useful hints and tips i.e Geography now encompasses not only physical and human geography but also environmental geography social geography geology and geopolitics Where to look lists relevant printed digital and online resources with useful annotations explaining their scope and strengths Readership This is the must have quick reference tool arming librarians and teachers with the knowledge to deal with any queries thrown at them from children and young people as well as their parents and caregivers It will also be a handy reference for parents and anyone working with children and young people in other organizations such as homework clubs and youth workers

So You Want to Be a Doctor? David Metcalfe,Harveer Dev,Michael Moazami,2021 Applying to medical school is like asking someone to marry you This might seem like an exaggeration however over your life you will spend more hours working than you will spend awake with your life partner Like marriage being a doctor will change who you are influence where you live and affect what you can do with your life For the right person this can be a wonderful life affirming experience Otherwise divorce from a medical career can be messy painful and upsetting
