Christianity And Islam:

Christianity and Islam According to the Bible and the Qur'an Naser Al-Moghamis, 2002 Since the Bible is the basis for the teachings of Christianity and the Qur'an is the main source of Islamic Religion and Law this book compares Islam and Christianity according to a comparative study of the Bible and the Qur'an This approach ensures that the comparison is based on facts and not on prejudice or misunderstanding

Common Ground Paul L. Heck, 2009-09-04 Christian Muslim interaction is a reality today in all corners of the globe but while many celebrate the commonality of these traditions significant differences remain If these religions cannot be easily reconciled can we perhaps view them through a single albeit refractive lens This is the approach Paul Heck takes in Common Ground To undertake a study of religious pluralism as a theological and social reality and to approach the two religions in tandem as part of a broader discussion on the nature of the good society Rather than compare Christianity and Islam as two species of faith religious pluralism offers a prism through which a society as a whole secular and religious alike can consider its core beliefs and values Christianity and Islam are not merely identities that designate particular communities but reference points that all can comprehend and discuss knowledgeably This analysis of how Islam and Christianity understand theology ethics and politics specifically democracy and human rights offers a way for that discussion to move forward

Islam and Christianity Badru D. Kateregga, David W. Shenk, 1981

Islam and Christianity Today W M Watt, 2013-10-16 In this volume originally published in 1983 W Montgomery Watt looks at the meeting of Christianity and Islam how they see and have seen each other and considers how they can aid each other in dealing with the problems of the world today He emphasizes those beliefs which Christianity and Islam have in common and shows how they may be justified intellectually

Rationalization in Religions Yohanan Friedmann, Christoph Marksches, 2018-12-17 Current tendencies in religious studies and theology show a growing interest for the interchange between religions and the cultures of rationalization surrounding them The studies published in this volume based on the international conferences of both the Berlin Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften and the Israel Academy of Sciences and Humanities aim to contribute to this field of interest by dealing with concepts and influences of rationalization in Judaism Christianity Islam and religion in general In addition to taking a closer look at the immediate links in the history of tradition between those rationalizing movements and evolutions in religion emphasis is put on intellectual historical convergences Therefore the articles are led by central comparative questions such as what factors foster hinder rationalization where are criteria for rationalization drawn from in which institutions is rationalization taking place who propagates supports and utilizes rationalization

Answering Islam Norman L. Geisler, Abdul Saleeb, 2002-08 Apologetic guide compares the major tenets of Islam with Christianity

Burns, 2011-11-09 This work touches upon the origins and central teachings of the Islamic religion and discusses the commonalties and differences between Islam and Christianity The purpose of this book is to help alleviate the misinformation surrounding Islam and to inspire a dialogue between the two religions

Christianity, Islam, and Orisa-Religion J.D.Y. Peel, 2015-11-27 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s open access publishing program for monographs Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The Yoruba of southwestern Nigeria are exceptional for the copresence among them of three religious traditions Islam Christianity and the indigenous orisa religion In this comparative study at once historical and anthropological Peel explores the intertwined character of the three religions and the dense imbrication of religion in all aspects of Yoruba history up to the present For over 400 years the Yoruba have straddled two geocultural spheres one reaching north over the Sahara to the world of Islam the other linking them to the Euro American world via the Atlantic These two external spheres were the source of contrasting cultural influences notably those emanating from the world religions However the Yoruba not only imported Islam and Christianity but also exported their own orisa religion to the New World Before the voluntary modern diaspora that has brought many Yoruba to Europe and the Americas tens of thousands were sold as slaves in the New World bringing with them the worship of the orisa Peel offers deep insight into important contemporary themes such as religious conversion new religious movements relations between world religions the conditions of religious violence the transnational flows of contemporary religion and the interplay between tradition and the demands of an ever changing present In the process he makes a major theoretical contribution to the anthropology of world religions Learning from Islam Kamal al-Kanady,2012-05-23 Trust is debating the Israel Palestine conflict with a conservative Sunni barber holding a straight razor to your throat

Kamal al Kanady An immigrant white Christian businessman from Canada writes about his experiences in a majority Islamic country in the Middle East He is a family man a management consultant and one of those scholarly types that reads history books for entertainment He has been learning not just Arabic and business but learning from Islam about how he would like to live as a Christian This book is a call to humility and inclusion in Christian Muslim dialogue There are more than a billion of each faith on the planet now and the relationship between the world s two largest faiths is too important to be left to the minority of priests and imams to sort out Regular everyday Muslims and Christians need to be building bridges investing in understanding and approaching each other with a humble orthodoxy Perhaps we could start by simply inviting each other over for tea

Civilisations in Conflict? J. Andrew Kirk,2011-06-01 Samuel Huntington s thesis which argues that there appear to be aspects of Islam that could be on a collision course with the politics and values of Western societies has provoked much controversy The purpose of this study is to offer a particular response to Huntington s thesis by making a comparison between the origins of Islam and Christianity the two religions that can be said to have shaped in contrasting ways the history of the Western world The early history of each faith continues to have a profound impact on the way in which their respective followers have interpreted the relationship between faith and political life The book draws significant critical and creative conclusions from the analysis for contemporary intercultural understanding and in particular for the debate about the justification of violence for political and religious ends Andrew Kirk offers a profound analysis of Christianity Islam and Western civilisation providing alternatives to a clash of civilisations He secures his right to advise others through an honest critique of his own tradition

Matt Zahniser Scholar in Residence at Greenville College Greenville IL Professor Emeritus of Christian Mission at Asbury Theological Seminary KY An eminent missiologist who has long reflected on Christianity and the West applies his mind to Islam and the West The result is a careful analysis of current debates the identification from a Christian perspective of fundamental issues and a prophetic call At the centre is a valuable study of how the origins of the two faiths can determine their views of how religion relates to politics which leads to an important discussion of the missions of both Muslims and Christians to the West

Ida Glaser Academic Director Centre for Muslim Christian Studies Oxford In his latest book Civilisations in Conflict Islam the West and Christian Faith Andrew Kirk takes on Samuel Huntington s thesis of a clash of civilisations Kirk takes his reader on a journey into history showing that contemporary political stances by Muslims and Christians can be better comprehended when some of the choices made in the formative years of both traditions are understood Rather than simply endorsing Huntington s thesis of an envisioned clash Kirk focuses on the second and less well known part of Huntington s thesis the remaking of World Order He ends his book with a passionate appeal to the adherents of both Christianity and Islam to safeguard the prophetic core of their traditions

Prophetism according to Kirk can function as a critical notion against the development and impact of static and oppressive religious and political ideologies that enhance the probability of a clash of civilisations Even more the prophetic core of both religions can contribute significantly to a new and shared world order A book worth reading Martha Frederiks Professor of Missiology World Christianity and Interreligious Dialogue Utrecht University J Andrew Kirk has spent much of his life teaching theological subjects in tertiary educational institutions in Argentina and England He has also taught courses on all six continents Since retirement he has been involved on a part time basis with graduate institutes in Eastern Europe and the United Kingdom He is the author of many books including What is Mission Theological Explorations and The Future of Reason Science and Faith Following Modernity and Postmodernity He is married with three children and two grandchildren

A Religion of Peace? Robert Spencer, 2007-07-17 Argues that Christianity is more peaceful moral reasonable and tolerant of other religions than Islam and that the western world must regain an appreciation of its Christian roots in order to stand firm against the threat of Islamic jihadists

The Decline of Eastern Christianity Under Islam Bat Ye'or, 1996 In two waves of Islamic expansion the Christian and Jewish populations of the Mediterranean regions and Mesopotamia who had developed the most prestigious civilizations of the time were conquered by jihad Millions of Christians from Spain Egypt Syria Greece and Armenia Latins and Slavs from southern and central Europe as well as Jews were henceforth governed by the shari a Islamic law

Calling the Christians Adam Hafiz, 2020-12-17 Growing up as a Christian Adam gained a great knowledge of Christian theology and scripture However as he studied his religion he realised the truth pointed in a different direction The evidence pointed towards Islam as the true faith After deep and wide ranging research Adam converted to Islam and shares much of the evidence he found in this book Drawing on evidence from the Bible and the Quran as well as history and philosophy this book majestically demonstrates the clear evidence for the Islamic faith in comparison to Christianity This book aims to provide Muslim readers with a vast resource of sound arguments when engaging in conversation with Christian critics and will provide important points for consideration for those of the Christian faith God willing Easy to read and rich in knowledge this book is a valuable read for Muslims and non Muslims alike

Building Bridges Fouad Elias Accad, 1997 Do you know how to reach your Muslim neighbors or friends Learn how to build bridges and present Christ to them

God's Continent : Christianity, Islam, and Europe's Religious Crisis Philip Jenkins Distinguished Professor of History and Religious Studies Pennsylvania State University, 2007-05-11 What does the future hold for European Christianity Is the Christian church doomed to collapse under the weight of globalization Western secularism and a flood of Muslim immigrants Is Europe in short on the brink of becoming Eurabia Though many pundits are loudly predicting just such a scenario Philip Jenkins reveals the flaws in these arguments in God's Continent and offers a much more measured assessment of Europe's religious future While frankly acknowledging current tensions Jenkins shows for instance that the overheated rhetoric about a Muslim dominated Europe is based on politically convenient myths that Europe is being imperiled by floods of Muslim immigrants exploding Muslim birth rates and the demise of European Christianity He points out that by no means are Muslims the only new immigrants in Europe Christians from Africa Asia and Eastern Europe are also pouring into the Western countries and bringing with them a vibrant and enthusiastic faith that is helping to transform the face of European Christianity Jenkins agrees that both Christianity and Islam face real difficulties in surviving within Europe's secular culture But instead of fading away both have adapted and are adapting Yes the churches are in decline but there are also clear indications that Christian loyalty and devotion survive even as institutions crumble Jenkins sees encouraging signs of continuing Christian devotion in Europe especially in pilgrimages that attract millions more in fact than in bygone ages of faith The third book in an acclaimed trilogy that includes The Next Christendom and The New Faces of Christianity God's Continent offers a realistic and historically grounded appraisal of the future of Christianity in a rapidly changing Europe
