

The background image is a dark, atmospheric industrial scene. In the upper left, a bright, glowing light source, possibly a furnace or a large lamp, illuminates the surrounding area, casting a warm, orange glow. To the right, a large, dark metal beam or structure extends diagonally across the frame. The overall tone is dark and moody, with a focus on industrial elements and light contrasts.

Chinese Demon Tales Ping-Chiu Yen, 2022-05-17 This book first published in 1990 is a thematic analysis of five tales of early vernacular Chinese literature Interest in vernacular stories is increasing in the study of Chinese literature as their importance is being recognised as a key part of the oral traditional narrative From the analysis of the five Chinese tales in light of literary historical philological sources and folkloristic methodologies we may see to what extent tales of an intrinsically religious nature can offer meanings in the oral tradition Jewish American Writing and World Literature Saul Noam Zaritt, 2020-10-13 Jewish American Writing and World Literature Maybe to Millions Maybe to Nobody studies Jewish American writers relationships with the idea of world literature Writers such as Sholem Asch Jacob Glatstein Isaac Bashevis Singer Anna Margolin Saul Bellow and Grace Paley all responded to a demand to write beyond local Jewish and American audiences and toward the world as a global market and as a transnational ideal Beyond fame and global circulation world literature holds up the promise of legibility in which a threatened origin becomes the site for redemptive literary creativity But this promise inevitably remains unfulfilled as writers struggle to balance potential universal achievements with untranslatable realities rendering impossible any complete arrival in the US and in the world The work examined in this study was deeply informed by an intimate connection to Yiddish a Jewish vernacular with its own global network and institutional ambitions Jewish American Writing and World Literature tracks the attempts and failures through translation to find a home for Jewish vernacularity in the institution of world literature The exploration of the translational uncertainty of Jewish American writing joins postcolonial critiques of US and world literature and challenges Eurocentric and Anglo American paradigms of literary study In bringing into conversation the fields of Yiddish studies American Studies and world literature theory Jewish American Writing and World Literature Maybe to Millions Maybe to Nobody proposes a new approach to the study of modern Jewish literatures and their implication within global empires of culture The Book of the Thousand Nights and a Night Leonard C.
