Den Store Danske Encyklopædi:

Thinking with Kierkegaard Arne Grøn, 2022-12-31 Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity. The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy. Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship, Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel. The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience. Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship, and Grøn uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of Kierkegaard's work. In Grøn's reading, Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self-experience: that is, the body, the world, other people, and God. This book should be of interest to philosophers, theologians, literary studies scholars, and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity.

Fashionable Encounters Tove Engelhardt Mathiassen, Marie-Louise Nosch, Maj Ringgaard, Kirsten Toftegaard, Mikkel Venborg Pederson, 2014-05-30 At the heart of this anthology lies the world of fashion, a concept that pervades the realm of clothes and dress, appearances, and fashionable manners, interior design, ideas, and attitudes. Here, sixteen papers focus on the Nordic world: Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Iceland, the Faroe Isles, and Greenland, within the time frame AD 1500–1850. This was a period of rapid and far-reaching social, political, and economic change, from feudal Europe through political revolution, industrialisation, development of international trade, religious upheaval, and technological innovation, changes impacting on every aspect of life and reflected in equally rapid and widespread changes in fashion at all levels of society. These papers present a broad image of the theme of fashion as a concept and as an empirical manifestation in the Nordic countries in early modernity, exploring a variety of ways in which that world encountered fashionable impressions in clothing and related aspects of material culture from Europe, the Russian Empire, and far beyond. The chapters range from object-based studies to theory-driven analysis. Elite and sophisticated fashions, the importation of luxuries, and fashion garments, christening and bridal wear, silk knitted waistcoats, woollen sweaters, and the influence of the whaling trade on women's clothing are some of the diverse topics considered, as well as religious influences on perceptions of luxury and aspects of the garment trade and merchant inventories.

The Two Books Olaf Pedersen, 2007 In 1982, Olaf Pedersen gave a series of lectures at the University of Aarhus, Denmark, and in 1988 at Cambridge University. In the course of those lectures, he developed The Two Books: Historical Notes on Some Interactions between Natural Science and Theology. After Pedersen's death in 1997, the work was prepared for publication, making available in English as complete and accurate a version as possible of Pedersen's monumental work. There is a lingering impression that the field of natural science and theology is new and that except for such passing episodes as those associated with such figures as Galileo Galilei Giordano Bruno and Charles Darwin there is little or no historical continuity to the science religion dialogue This book by Olaf Pedersen definitively corrects that impression by tracing with scholarly precision the historical roots from pre Socratic times to today s pursuit of the interactions between the natural sciences and religion In doing so it makes a unique and important contribution to the field Textile Terminologies from the Orient to the Mediterranean and Europe, 1000 BC to 1000 AD Salvatore Gaspa,CŽcile Michel,Marie-Louise Nosch,2017 The papers in this volume derive from the conference on textile terminology held in June 2014 at the University of Copenhagen Around 50 experts from the fields of Ancient History Indo European Studies Semitic Philology Assyriology Classical Archaeology and Terminology from twelve different countries came together at the Centre for Textile Research to discuss textile terminology semantic fields of clothing and technology loan words and developments of textile terms in Antiquity They exchanged ideas research results and presented various views and methods This volume contains 35 chapters divided into five sections Textile terminologies across the ancient Near East and the Southern Levant Textile terminologies in Europe and Egypt Textile terminologies in metaphorical language and poetry Textile terminologies examples from China and Japan Technical terms of textiles and textile tools and methodologies of classifications Take Danish, for Instance Henrik Galberg Jacobsen,2003 Text in English and Danish Linguistic studies in honour of Hans Basboll presented on the occasion of his 60th birthday 12 July 2003 This is a collection of 29 linguistic papers spanning as diverse areas as phonology morphology language acquisition computational linguistics linguistic theory and model building all areas to which Hans Basboll professor of Scandinavian linguistics at the University of Southern Denmark Odense has contributed in significant ways The contributors are linguists from Austria Belgium Denmark France Germany New Zealand Norway and USA Beyond the papers the book contains a bibliography on Hans Basbolls work from 1968 to 2003 Scandinavian-Canadian Studies Association for the Advancement of Scandinavian Studies in Canada.
