Paper Doll Dylan Mulvaney, 2025-03-11 Dylan makes me laugh and makes me brave I love Paper Doll and I love this woman Glennon Doyle 1 New York Times bestselling author of Untamed Actress and content creator Dylan Mulvaney's honest account of her journey through girlhood When Dylan Mulvaney came out as a woman online she was a viral sensation almost overnight emerging as a trailblazing voice on social media Dylan's personal coming out story blossomed into a platform for advocacy and empowerment for trans people all over the world Through her Days of Girlhood series she connected with followers by exploring what it means to be a girl from experimenting with makeup to story times to spilling the tea about laser hair removal while never shying away from discussing the transphobia she faced online Nevertheless she was determined to be a beacon of positivity But shortly after she celebrated day 365 of being a girl it all came screeching to a halt when an innocuous post sparked a media firestorm and right wing backlash she couldn't have expected Despite the vitriolic press and relentless paparazzi Dylan was determined to remain loud and proud In Paper Doll Notes from a Late Bloomer Dylan pulls back the curtain of her It Girl lifestyle with a witty and intimate reflection of her life pre and post transition She covers everything from her first big break in theater to the first time her dad recognized her as a girl to how she handled scandals cancellations and tucking It's both laugh out loud funny and powerfully honest and is a love letter to everyone who stands up for queer joy

Material Christianity Colleen McDannell, 1995-01-01 What can the religious objects used by nineteenth and twentieth century Americans tell us about American Christianity What is the relationship between the beliefs of the faithful and the landscapes they build This lavishly illustrated book investigates the history and meaning of Christian material culture in America over the last 150 years Drawing on a rich array of historical sources and on in depth interviews with Protestants Catholics and Mormons Colleen McDannell examines the relationship between religion and mass consumption She describes examples of nineteenth century religious practice Victorians burying their dead in cultivated cemetery parks Protestants producing and displaying elaborate family Bibles Catholics writing for special water from Lourdes reputed to have miraculous powers And she looks at today's Christians Mormons wearing sacred underclothing as a reminder of their religious promises Catholics debating the design of tasteful churches and Protestants manufacturing marketing and using a vast array of prints clothing figurines jewelry and toys that some label Jesus junk but that others see as a witness to their faith McDannell claims that previous studies of American Christianity have overemphasized the written cognitive and ethical dimensions of religion presenting faith as a disembodied system of beliefs She shifts attention from the church and the theological seminary to the workplace home cemetery and Sunday school highlighting a different Christianity one in which average Christians experience the divine the nature of death the power of healing and the meaning of community through interacting with a created world of devotional images environments and objects
