

Les Miserables

A summary

The convict Jean Valjean, prisoner number 24601, is released from a French prison after serving nineteen years for stealing a loaf of bread and for subsequent attempts to escape from prison. When Valjean arrives at a town after his release, no one is willing to give him shelter because he is an ex-convict. Valjean then knocks on the door of Fr. Myriel, the kindly bishop of the town. Myriel treats Valjean with kindness, but Valjean repays the bishop by stealing his silverware. When the police arrested Valjean, Myriel claims that the silverware was a gift to Valjean. The authorities release Valjean and Myriel makes him promise to become an honest man. Desired to fulfill his promise, Valjean masks his identity and enters into another town. Under the "fake" name of Madeleine, Valjean invents a manufacturing process that brings the town prosperity. He eventually becomes the town's mayor.

Fantine is a young woman from Montreuil, the town where Monsieur Madeleine was the mayor. She has an illegitimate child named Cosette. After she was abandoned by the father of his child, Fantine returns to her home town with her daughter. On the way to Montreuil, however, Fantine realizes that she will never be able to find work if the townspeople know that she has an illegitimate child. Then, she meets the Thenardiens, a family that runs an inn. The Thenardiens agree to look after Cosette as long as Fantine sends them a monthly allowance.

In Montreuil, Fantine finds work in Madeleine's factory. Fantine's coworkers find out about Cosette and Fantine is fired. The Thenardiens demand more money to support Cosette, and Fantine become a prostitute to support her child. One night, Javert, Montreuil's police chief, arrests Fantine. She is to be sent to prison, but Madeleine intervenes. Fantine has fallen ill, and when she longs to see Cosette, Madeleine promises to send for her. However, he must first contend with Javert, who has discovered Madeleine's criminal past. Javert tells Madeleine that a man has been accused of being Jean Valjean, and Madeleine confesses his true identity. Javert shows up to arrest Valjean while Valjean is at Fantine's side, and Fantine dies.

After a few years, Valjean escapes from prison and heads to Montfermeil, where he is able to buy Cosette from the Thenardiens. Valjean and Cosette move to a run-down part of Paris. Javert discovers their hideout, and they are forced to flee. They find refuge in a convent, where Cosette attends school and Valjean works as a gardener.

The next chapter starts with Marius Pontmercy, a young man who lives with his wealthy grandfather, Monsieur Gillenormand. Because of political differences within the family, Marius has never met his father, Georges Pontmercy. After his father's death, Marius learns more about him and comes to admire his father's
