Review Geojournal:

The symbiotic city Marian Stuiver, 2023-08-14 Urgency asks us to transform our cities and re embed them into soil water and living organisms to safeguard our planet's resources and restore biodiversity This book introduces the symbiotic city a future urban landscape that creates beneficial relationships between humans and nature The symbiotic city is a narrative of hope that re creates biodiversity and promotes social equity inclusion and environmental justice The chapters introduce cities that are already evolving to becoming more symbiotic The cities and metropolitan areas described in this book show initiatives that invite the voices of nature to re enter the urban realm The cases advocate diverse values of nature such as nature based solutions personal and communal values of nature and the intrinsic rights of nature They give the reader insights in epistemological governance and action oriented solutions to work towards the symbiotic city The book provides strategic and practical guidelines for urbanites from any background We welcome our readers to actively join the exciting journey toward future cities and metropolitan areas where all voices are heard human and non human

The Methodology of Political Economy J.I. Bakker, 2015-12-24 The importance of the global rural urban matrix is often overlooked due to urban normativity But sometimes agrarian populism and a pastoral rural imaginary result in the equally fallacy of a rural normativity as in Jeffersonian nostalgia for a lost way of life that never existed The nature of rurality in North America is important to study but as Alessandro Bonanno makes clear we cannot limit ourselves to the study of one or two nation states We must take a global perspective when it comes to the bio physical environment and the nature of the world capitalist system This collection takes such a perspective The editor frames the contributions with a Meta Paradigm called the New Political Economy Perspective NPEP and explains the roots of that approach in Classical Political Economy and the Canadian Political Economy Tradition of Harold Adams Innis There are chapters by an anthropologist a geographer two generalist sociologists and a group of rural sociologists There is also a chapter on psychiatry and mental health and another chapter which discusses pedagogy The use of an inter disciplinary framework to study global issues makes this a stimulating book which provides a window on issues that are often overlooked

The Geographies of COVID-19 Melinda Laituri, Robert B. Richardson, Junghwan Kim, 2022-10-31 This volume of case studies focuses on the geographies of COVID 19 around the world These geographies are located in both time and space concentrating on both first and second order impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic First order impacts are those associated with the immediate response to the pandemic that include tracking number of deaths and cases testing access to hospitals impacts on essential workers searching for the origins of the virus and preventive treatments such as vaccines and contact tracing Second order impacts are the result of actions practices and policies in response to the spread of the virus with longer term effects on food security access to health services loss of livelihoods evictions and migration Further the COVID 19 pandemic will be prolonged due to the onset of variants as well as setting the stage for similar future events This volume provides a synopsis of how geography and geospatial approaches are used to understand this event and the emerging new normal The volume s approach is necessarily selective due to the global reach of the pandemic and the broad sweep of second order impacts where important issues may be left out However the book is envisioned as the prelude to an extended conversation about adaptation to complex circumstances using geospatial tools Using case studies and examples of geospatial analyses this volume adopts a geographic lens to highlight the differences and commonalities across space and time where fundamental inequities are exposed the governmental response is varied and outcomes remain uncertain This moment of global collective experience starkly reveals how inequality is ubiquitous and vulnerable populations those unable to access basic needs are increasing This place based approach identifies how geospatial analyses and resulting maps depict the pandemic as it ebbs and flows across the globe Data driven decision making is needed as we navigate the pandemic and determine ways to address future such events to enable local and regional governments in prioritizing limited resources to mitigate the long term consequences of COVID 19

Public Policy in Agriculture Ashok K. Mishra, Davide Viaggi, Sergio Gomez y Paloma, 2017-08-07 In recent years developed countries have formulated public policies in agriculture ranging from supporting rural life and farm income to promoting sustainability of food and fibre production Public Policy in Agriculture Impact on Labor Supply and Household Income addresses the lack of empirical research in this area It explores the impact of differing approaches to public policy through a series of international case studies from the USA and Canada to South Korea Norway Slovenia and Taiwan At a time when much of the developed world has been experiencing budget deficits and policy makers and the public in general have re opened the debate on public expenditures in the agricultural sector this is a timely volume Mishra Viaggi and Gomez y Paloma have written an authoritative guide to agricultural public policy that will serve as a reference for academics researchers students and policy makers Health and Medical Geography in Africa Yemi Adewoyin, 2023-10-30 This contributed volume focuses on the evolution and current state of the sub discipline of health and medical geography in Africa It encompasses theoretical and methodological issues as well as the current teaching and research capacities of institutions offering programs in health and medical geography in Africa Further the book will review the level of adoption of the sub discipline in State policies and practice and also provide practical illustrations with case studies of how studies in the sub discipline are central to the actualization of Africa s development agenda Particular attention is paid to the relationship between health and development Through its direct and indirect impacts on labor productivity population health and wellbeing matter for the social and economic development of households and national economies Yet health is not uniform in space And so is development Comparatively on many health and development indicators Africa fairs poorly The variation in health may present as differences in the occurrence and spread of diseases the distribution of and access to healthcare facilities and or in health outcomes among the population Reasons for these variations range from biology to the population s levels of exposure and susceptibility to elements in their environment including the social interactions taking place within the environment The field of health and medical geography focuses on the spatial patterns and processes underlying these variations and provides pathways for understanding and addressing them More specifically the sub discipline of health and medical geography focuses on among others how places their characteristics and processes that go on in them and environmental factors underlie and or influence disease patterns exposure and susceptibility to diseases health variations health behavior health outcomes and the provision of and access to healthcare services This volume documents perspectives and applications in health and medical geography in Africa for academics students health practitioners and development policymakers

Approaching Regeneration of the Built Environment Saimir Shtylla, Hamid Rabiei, 2025-06-02 This book approaches three important aspects related with urban regeneration such as research innovation and challenges In light of its growing interdisciplinarity the selected contributions extend the debate to the importance of the cooperation between various disciplines attention to the latest design and technological trends as well major inclusivity of citizens for a correct decision making process leading afterwards into successful development test and implementation of innovative solutions An important focus will be set on the important role innovations play in the preservation and management of heritage sites in response to the climate and urban challenges encountered Also this contribution aims to transmit the importance of local interventions in the achievement of urban regeneration as an impulse for the achievement of the common global climate goals in the years ahead
