Where Will You Live? Jerry Madkins, 2019-02-21 The Gospel of John The Apostle is all about presenting Jesus Christ as the Savior of the world It also presents Jesus as the all powerful Son of God who enables His disciples to do great work on this earth This book is about modern day Christians tapping into the power of Jesus Christ to live more spiritually in the world today This book will concentrate on the first six chapters of this Gospel which is focusing on living more spiritually in the Kingdom of God upon this earth by becoming a dedicated Christian Disciple for Jesus Christ The subject of the book is Where Will You Live All Christians need to learn to live more spiritually in God and less carnally in this world This book will examine in detail how to do this and in its signature Chapter Four The Samaritan Woman at the Well the book will highlight the importance and necessity of all Christians witnessing to all lost sinners Finally the book will emphasize living with God in Heaven one day for all of eternity War and the Christian Charles Earle Raven,1972 TV Guide ,1989 Secrets of the Christian Life Philip Yancey,Tim Stafford,1979-03 Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe,2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices Unhappy Secrets of the Christian Life Philip Yancey,Tim Stafford,1979 The Christian treasury (and missionary review). ,1873 Because We Have Good News Wallace E. Fisher,1974 I Will Glorify You Jesus Anthem Christian Union Herald ,1903 The Western Christian Advocate ,1900 The Christian Advocate ,1926 Christian Nation ,1924 Christ and Business Culture Kam-hon Lee,Dennis McCann,MaryAnn Ching Yuen, Centre for the Study of Religion and Chinese Society, CUHK,2012 This book reports the results of a research project that spanned more than a decade Integrity is the foundation of business However the marketplace is highly competitive and sometimes hostile to basic moral aspirations It is not easy for Christian executives to remain faithful to their Christian values in the business world This project interviewed a total of 119 Christian executives in Hong Kong They were known among their peers as committed Christians Based on their stories recounting the challenges they faced in the marketplace the authors managed to collect a total of 539 critical incidents that illustrate how they responded when they sensed their integrity was on the line This study makes use of H Richard Niebuhr s framework on Christ and Culture and also the Negotiation Styles Framework in the negotiation literature When putting these two frameworks together the new integrated framework enabled us to understand the Christian executives responses to ethical challenges and their implications to profitableness This book demonstrates the usefulness and limitation of positive science and the importance of normative reflection in handling ethical challenges Based on positive science findings we can see Christian executives typical responses as these are shaped by external circumstances such as doing business in China or operating within a Christian corporate culture Based on normative reflection we can see that not infrequently when taking all possible factors into consideration Christian executives may pick atypical ways to respond to ethical challenges In handling such challenges it is important to understand both positive science and normative reflection Christian executives may benefit directly from the insights in this study to better prepare themselves for the ethical challenges in the marketplace Interested readers who are not Christians can also use these insights to compare and contrast as well as develop further their own ways of conducting business with integrity Gospel Messenger ,1955 Christian Thought ,1913 Christian Advocate ,1920 The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1915
