Creative Curriculum Infant Toddler Modules:

A Trainer's Guide to the Creative Curriculum for Family Child Care Diane Trister Dodge, Laura Jean Colker, 1991
This trainer's guide presents two approaches to working with providers who are implementing The Creative Curriculum for Family Child Care. The first approach involves periodic workshops and sharing sessions for providers. The second approach involves individualized support offered by the trainer in each provider's home. In Chapter I Planning Effective Training Sessions a review of knowledge about adult learners provides a basis for planning training. The chapter offers practical suggestions on logistics training techniques communication with providers and assessment of training. Chapter II Workshops on the Creative Curriculum includes detailed workshop outlines for each major activity area in the curriculum. Chapters III and IV focus on the process of working with providers in their homes giving particular attention to preparation of the environment and implementation of activities. These chapters explain what should happen in family child care homes where the creative curriculum is used and indicate the importance of these happenings. These chapters also deal with typical problems that providers experience and strategies for helping providers address such problems. An appendix lists resources that supplement the curriculum and professional organizations providers can join. RH

A Guide for Supervisors and Trainers on Implementing the Creative Curriculum for Early Childhood Diane Trister Dodge, 1993
This guide is designed for early childhood educators who are helping their staffs implement the Creative Curriculum for Early Childhood a curriculum that is based on child development theory and is developmentally appropriate for preschool and kindergarten children. A carefully organized and rich environment serves as the focus of this curriculum. Part 1 of the guide contains three sections discussing respectively 1 reasons for introducing the new curriculum 2 support and encouragement of staff development during curriculum implementation and 3 the use of classroom visits by supervisors as a way to provide technical assistance to staff and to fine tune the program. Part 2 offers workshop outlines and handouts for conducting staff development sessions This part contains 12 sections the first of which suggests workshop strategies for trainers while the second outlines a workshop that provides staff with an understanding and appreciation of the curriculum s child development focus The following 10 sections each describe workshops devoted to a particular topic 1 blocks 2 house corner dramatic play 3 table toys 4 art 5 sand and water 6 the library 7 music and movement 8 cooking 9 computers and 10 the outdoors Each workshop emphasizes the value of its topic area to child development through exercises activities discussions and handouts Two appendices provide a copy of the Creative Curriculum Self Assessment and Observation Form and staff development forms TJQ

Models of Early Childhood Education Ann S. Epstein, Lawrence J. Schweinhart, Leslie McAdoo, 1996 Inspired by the High Scope educational approach this book attempts to systematically and objectively compare different curriculum based approaches to training early childhood teachers and to assess how these models could individually and collectively address the problem of improving early childhood program quality nationwide An analytical and an empirical study were carried out to compare approaches including the Montessori Method the Bank Street Developmental Interaction approach the High Scope Curriculum the Kamii DeVries constructivist perspective Teaching Strategies Creative Curriculum and the Direct Instruction model In the analytical study a set of criteria were identified to examine and compare the practices and effects of such models In the empirical study the prevalence of various curriculum models were assessed through the use of questionnaires A summary and comparison of these six curriculum based training models including a list of questions in cross model comparison is presented and discussed in relation to their development The implications for teaching and training research and development and public policy are discussed in the last chapter Contains 208 references MOK
