Educational Challenges at Minority Serving Institutions Marybeth Gasman, Andrés Castro Samayoa, William Boland, Paola Esmieu, 2017-12-06 Minority Serving Institutions MSIs are responsible for educating 20 percent of the nation's college students and nearly 40 percent of the nation's students of color. This growing group of institutions is essential to higher education and moving toward a more equitable society. This important book focuses on the challenges faced by MSIs within the larger higher education context and provides practical solutions to address these challenges. From performance-based funding to issues of being dually designated MSIs to articulation agreements with community colleges to college readiness, the authors tackle the most important topics in higher education by exploring these varied topics through the lens of MSIs.

Crowdfunding in China Andrea S. Funk, 2019-02-01 China is currently the front runner on the global crowdfunding market, even though this form of financing originated in the USA. Crowdfunding in China, however, differs significantly from its counterpart in the West. This book reveals that Chinese crowdfunding is a product of the country's dynamic internet sector, which is based on mobile internet, e-commerce, and online mobile payments, together with significant government support. The author presents a comprehensive theoretical, empirical, and field-based work on crowdfunding in China. Adopting a new institutional economics approach, it maps and deciphers the origins and paths of informal finance that have led to internet finance and the rise of crowdfunding platforms. In addition, three case studies are analyzed, and their implications for crowdfunding stakeholders in China are discussed.
