Bold Spirit Linda Lawrence Hunt, 2007-12-18 In 1896 a Norwegian immigrant and mother of eight children named Helga Estby was behind on taxes and the mortgage when she learned that a mysterious sponsor would pay 10 000 to a woman who walked across America Hoping to win the wager and save her family's farm Helga and her teenaged daughter Clara armed with little more than a compass red pepper spray a revolver and Clara's curling iron set out on foot from Eastern Washington Their route would pass through 14 states but they were not allowed to carry more than five dollars each As they visited Indian reservations Western boomtowns remote ranches and local civic leaders they confronted snowstorms hunger thieves and mountain lions with equal aplomb Their treacherous and inspirational journey to New York challenged contemporary notions of femininity and captured the public imagination But their trip had such devastating consequences that the Estby women's achievement was blanketed in silence until nearly a century later Linda Lawrence Hunt encountered their extraordinary story Bold Spirit Linda Hunt, 2003 Bold Spirit: Helga Estby's Forgotten Walk Across Victorian America Linda Lawrence Hunt, 2005-01-01 Helga Estby left Spokane Washington and walked to NYC on a 10 000 challenge This remarkable story of hardship and suffering was long lost and only recently discovered by the author On Christmas Eve 1896 the New York World reported her arrival What followed was an American tragedy The Daughter's Walk Jane Kirkpatrick, 2011-04-05 A mother's tragedy a daughter's desire and the 7000 mile journey that changed their lives In 1896 Norwegian American Helga Estby accepted a wager from the fashion industry to walk from Spokane Washington to New York City within seven months in an effort to earn 10 000 Bringing along her nineteen year old daughter Clara the two made their way on the 3500 mile trek by following the railroad tracks and motivated by the money they needed to save the family farm After returning home to the Estby farm more than a year later Clara chose to walk on alone by leaving the family and changing her name Her decisions initiated a more than 20 year separation from the only life she had known Historical fiction writer Jane Kirkpatrick picks up where the fact of the Estbys walk leaves off to explore Clara's continued journey What motivated Clara to take such a risk in an era when many women struggled with the issues of rights and independence And what personal revelations brought Clara to the end of her lonely road The Daughter's Walk weaves personal history and fiction together to invite readers to consider their own journeys and family separations to help determine what exile and forgiveness are truly about Kirkpatrick has done impeccable homework and what she recreates and what she imagines are wonderfully seamless Readers see the times the motives the relationships that produce a chain of decisions and actions all rendered with understatement Kirkpatrick is a master at using fiction to illuminate history's truths This beautiful and compelling work of historical fiction deserves the widest possible audience Publishers Weekly Starred Review Minnesota Moxie Ben Welter, 2016-07-18 Minnesotans are a tough lot capable of pulling a house six miles by muscle alone or giving birth to a sixteen pound boy In 1921 young Phoebe Fairgrave set a parachute world record stepping off the wing of a biplane
