Manpower Monitor ,1997 Media and Technology in 21st Century Higher and Tertiary Education in Africa

Costain Tandi,2023-09-30 This book interrogates media and technology in the 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa Using Zimbabwe as its case study the book highlights the immense changes that the digital revolution has brought to higher institutions of learning in Africa including changes in teaching and learning Framed from an anti colonial perspective the book argues that digital change though critical in revolutionising education in Africa has come with a price as it has resulted in some epistemological erasures and injustices meted against the poor The book makes a critical contribution as it quests to correct the misdemeanours and injustices caused by digital gaps in African societies The authors argue that the future and success of digital technology in Africa lie in how well African countries will culturally and contextually sensor technology and attend to the problems caused by digital gaps The book provides a re invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the role of media and technology in revolutionising 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa It provides pointers and insights on how African countries can reformulate their education policy in a manner that is in sync with the level of digital technology of the time This is an important addition to critical debates on media and technology studies in education in Africa

Manpower Monitor

Zimbabwe. Ministry of Higher Education,1997 Moto ,2005 Concepts and Advances in Information Knowledge

Management Kelvin Joseph Bwalya, Nathan Mwakoshi Mnjama, Peter Mazebe II Mothataesi Sebina, 2014-04-11 Effective information and knowledge resource management is a driver of competitiveness. Many developing countries have put mechanisms in place that seek to match knowledge based economies where information has become the fuel for responsiveness, innovation and competition. Concepts and Advances in Information Knowledge Management brings out emerging and current discussion from the sub fields of information management in this environment. This title consists of sections on key aspects of information knowledge management and addresses knowledge management library studies, archives and records management and information systems. Presents research aimed at harmonizing theory and practice of general information management paradigms. Gives insight into the place of archives, records management and information technology impacting socio economic value chains. Disseminates theoretical and applied models and information management system architecture emerging from cloud computing and retrieval systems. Mentorship Strategies in Teacher Education Dikilitas, Kenan, Mede, Enisa, Atay, Derin, 2018-05-18 Mentoring in teacher education has been a key issue in ensuring the healthy development of teacher learning. Variety in the actualization of mentoring can lead to the exposition of new qualities and the evolving roles that mentors might undertake. Mentorship Strategies in Teacher Education provides emerging research on international educational mentoring practices and their implementation in teacher education. While highlighting topics such as e mentoring, preservice teachers and teacher program evaluation, this publication explores the implementations and implications that inform the existing practices of teacher education mentoring. This book is a vital resource for researchers, educators and practitioners seeking current research on the understanding and development of existing mentorship strategies in a variety of fields and disciplines. Re-imagining Educational Futures in Developing Countries Emmanuel Mogaji, Varsha Jain, Felix Maringe, Robert Ebo Hinson, 2022-02-14 This book explores the challenges and precarity of higher education post pandemic, explicitly focusing on higher education in emerging countries. Looking beyond the pandemic, the editors and contributors provide a holistic view of the residual legacies of global health crises like COVID 19 in developing countries. The book calls for the need to reimagine, reevaluate and reposition the higher education system, exploring the challenges experienced by students, staff, administrators and other stakeholders. Bringing forth insights from researchers, practitioners and senior leadership, the book shares theoretical and practical insights on dealing with the aftermath of a pandemic and what can be learned for the future. It will be of interest and value to researchers, practitioners and leaders who wish to understand and develop new approaches for their teaching and management post pandemic.

Handbook of Research on Digital-Based Assessment and Innovative Practices in Education Keengwe, Jared, 2022-05-06 Even though digital technologies are ubiquitous in education, assessment methods continue to employ traditional assessments even though they are inadequate to provide information about a student's reasoning and conceptual understanding. Digital based assessment models allow students to demonstrate higher order skills while integrating digital technologies as a powerful teaching tool Digital technologies can support inquiry based learning that is essential to developing a deep conceptual understanding of the content The Handbook of Research on Digital Based Assessment and Innovative Practices in Education identifies digital tools and applications for effective assessment of learning shares various models of digital based assessment in education and considers best pedagogical practices for assessment in education Covering a range of topics such as formative assessments design thinking virtual reality and equity this major reference work is crucial for educational technologists instructional designers policymakers administrators faculty researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao, Esther Mavengano, 2024-06-17 Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe Reflecting on Shona Xitsonga Sotho Xhosa Tjwao Nambya IsiNdebele Nyanja Tshivenda English and Braille the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures language use and language ideologies across the country The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and in the process poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages The authors offerings range across subjects as diverse as music linguistic innovation education human rights literature language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility migration cultural plurality and globalisation this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature linguistics communication policy and politics
