Fitzpatrick, 1964 The Crisis of School Violence Marianna King, 2020-12-01 The Crisis of School Violence is the only interdisciplinary book about school violence. It presents a broad and in-depth approach to the key questions about why bullying continues at an unprecedentedly high rate and why rampage school shootings continue to shock the nation. Based on extensive research, The Crisis of School Violence investigates human nature and its relation to aggressive behavior with a special focus on the culture of violence that predicated school violence, including rampage shootings and perpetuates industries that profit from violence. Marianna King presents the considerable psychological and neuroscientific research that investigates the effects of violent entertainment media on the brain and subsequently on behavior, which clearly reveals a causal connection between exposure to violent electronic entertainment media, especially violent video games, and increased aggressive and violent behavior. The book also reveals a more specific connection between exposure to violent video games and rampage school shootings. Ultimately, this volume is a call to action that includes recommendations for parents, teachers, decision makers, and citizens alike. Review Notes and Study Guide to Hardy's Tess of the D'Urbervilles Thomas

Hardy, Robert Ackerman, 1964 The Militarisation of Behaviours Błażej Kaucz, 2022-10-31 This book examines how historical military influences can become embedded and used by the state to control citizens' behaviour, termed the militarisation of behaviours. It refers to the treatment of citizens by their state in a manner resembling the treatment of soldiers by the army. The militarisation of behaviours is a process of mass social control where the state exercises its powers over the population, blurring the boundaries between a dichotomous divide of civilian and military life. This book focuses on the social process of how Polish post-WWII emergency legislation was normalised and how through it the Polish communist state from 1943 until 1989 introduced and enforced the process of militarisation of behaviours It discusses the impact of the emergency legislation on the Republic of Ireland as a comparison It offers a useful lens to understand the social and political processes happening currently in Poland Ireland and elsewhere with the increasing influence of the far right This book is situated in the framework of criminology and socio legal studies The Last of the Mohicans Study Guide
