Jane Smith, 70, left us on November 1, 2000, with her family by her side in Miami, Florida.

Jane was born May 1, 1930, in Tampa to Charles and Sarah Williams. Her father was a Doctor in Miami. Her mother came up from Miami as a Nurse. They moved to Tampa in 1947.

Jane spent summers at her grandparents in remote areas of the wilderness. She graduated from Tampa High School in 1948. She was an active member of the Brighton Presbyterian Church and worked with various charities.

Her interests included family, gardening, sewing and reading. She devoted much of her time and energy as a caregiver to family members, including her mother until she passed away at age 83.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her sister, Samantha Gonzalez; brother, John Williams; 2 sons and their spouses, Jeff and Timothy Smith, Brittany and Connie Snow; and 8 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral, Memorial and Thanksgiving Services Jan Brind, Tessa Wilkinson, 2008-01-01 Arising out of many years experience of helping to lead local church worship and counselling work in a children's hospice this is the first of three new volumes that focuses on the occasions when many non churchgoers visit a church for christenings weddings funerals and memorials These rites of passage present key opportunities for occasional visitors to encounter the Christian faith If they are imaginatively handled a lifelong interest can be aroused If they are insensitively done people can be put off for life This practical resource offers prayers forms of words and many tried and tested ideas for creating rituals that give support at a time of great need following a death It will enable the creation of rites based on the authorized liturgical texts that are beautiful memorable and meaningful Particular help is given for that most difficult of pastoral challenges the death of a child and the care of the bereaved family

Called to Preside Theresa Cotter, 2005-07-29 Called to Preside is a complete guide to the art and craft of presiding at public prayer Theresa Cotter lays a solid groundwork for those new to the study of liturgy and encourages novice presiders with numerous suggestions for practicing presiding skills This handbook will serve as an invaluable reference and resource throughout your presiding ministry Topics include the call to preside common words with special meanings in the context of liturgy the presider as a person of prayer signs and symbols liturgical essentials methods to sharpen presiding skills the public prayer of the faith community tips for meeting ongoing presiding challenges a wealth of resources for continued growth and learning In the introduction Cotter writes We need to learn about liturgy about symbols rituals and rites We need to learn about presiding and practice its skills We need to evaluate our own giftedness and remain open to the workings of the Holy Spirit Above all we need to pray This handbook will help in both the discerning process and the learning process It can enable us to respond with wisdom courage generosity confidence and enthusiasm If our call to preside is authentic the Spirit will ignite within us a desire to preside and to preside well The most tentative maybe will be transformed into an enthusiastic yes

Christian Funerals Andy Langford, 2010-12-01 Unlike weddings funerals rarely take place after extensive planning Often the deceased is not someone the pastor has known well and preparations for the service of death and resurrection take place in the midst of pastoral care of the grieving writing the funeral sermon and the pastor's regular duties These circumstances make it especially hard to plan an appropriate and meaningful order of worship for the funeral service Christian Funerals will help pastors as they attend to this crucial ministry of the church Drawing on the books of worship from a number of denominations and traditions it provides several options for each of the elements of the funeral service from gathering texts to opening prayers to scripture lessons to final prayers The book is bound in a way that makes it suitable for use at church services and at the grave side

At the beginning of the twenty first century the Christian Church continues to minister to the dying and the bereaved However it does so in a rapidly changing world The traditional understandings of death and life after death are challenged by the disciplines of medicine the law philosophy psychology and anthropology This two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice is written from the author s direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume I Dr Sheppy argues that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study He argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Volume II reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church s concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased Federal Register ,1963-12 The Works of that Learned and Judicious Divine, Mr. Richard Hooker Richard Hooker,Izaak Walton,1890
