Rury,2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree      New Developments in Pathways Towards Diversity and Inclusion in STEM: A United States Perspective Alexander Gates,Juan Gilbert,Chris Botanga,Kim Nguyen,Bonita London,2022-10-17 The Louis Stokes Alliances for Minority Participation LSAMP program of the US National Science Foundation has been a primary force for raising the success and graduation of minority students in STEM for 30 years Increasing the number of underrepresented students earning baccalaureate degrees and entering graduate school in STEM is the goal of LSAMP This goal has been nearly achieved through the formation of alliances of degree granting institutions of higher learning varying from community colleges to major research institutions Currently there are 59 alliances including more than 400 institutions LSAMP is responsible for more than 650 000 bachelor s degrees earned by minority students in STEM The papers for this Research Topic should focus on the use of LSAMP activities programs and collaborations to develop pathways to success and graduation of STEM majors from minority groups that underrepresented in STEM These pathways can include any segment from pre college through graduate school Areas of special interest include mentoring research experiences transitions between levels and novel approaches for retention The studies should be research based and rigorous They can be pure research studies curriculum and design or literature reviews but they must be at a cutting edge level and be subject to detailed review and assessment      Who's who in America ,1923      Roster of Members Association for Computing Machinery,1987      Science Citation Index ,1995 Vols for 1964 have guides and journal lists      Who's Who in the South and Southwest 2000-2001 Marquis Who's Who,Marquis Who's Who Staff,2000-11      Who's who in America ,2003      Who's Who in the West Marquis Who's Who,2001-11      Who's who in Finance and Business ,2008      WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA THE A.N.
