interesting way rather than just merely presenting facts. The most common examples of creative writings are blog entries, novels, short stories, scripts seen on television screens, stage plays, music, and so many more. Advertisements on televisions and billboard ads are great examples of creative writing products, and in fact, everywhere you look is surrounded by products of creative writing. The beauty of creative writing is that it allows the author to exercise his imagination and let it run wild while creating beautiful output that either amuses, inspires, or informs their readers. Most blogs or online journals, which have become wildly popular and accepted in this common day and age, are great examples of creative writing. Creative writing is a great way for anyone of any age and gender to express themselves and create a voice that needs to be heard.

Creative Writing Topics

Oftentimes, one of the hardest challenges of writing is finding the perfect topics that the writer is comfortable writing while being engaging at the same time. It is important that as a writer, you know what you are writing about, especially when writing about opinions and certain topics that require adequate knowledge. Here are a few creative writing topics that are popular and relatable:

- Articles
- Current event opinions
- Satire articles
- Open opinion articles that mostly discuss one's point of view on a certain matter
- Tips and tricks on specific topics

e.g. Top 10 Tricks To Keeping A Clean Home
Product Reviews
Diary entries
Stories
Memoirs
Biographies
Short romantic fiction stories
Comics
Scripts for plays
advertisements
TV shows
Poetry

There is not a single topic limited for creative writing, and in fact, venturing into every style of writing is best, especially for those who want to gain more experience. It is important to gain diversity in creative writing since there are so many topics to write about, which also means lots of opportunities, especially for those who want to make a living out of writing.
