Database and Expert Systems Applications Sven Hartmann, Hui Ma, Abdelkader Hameurlain, Günther Pernul, Roland R. Wagner, 2018-08-20 This two volume set of LNCS 11029 and LNCS 11030 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 29th International Conference on Database and Expert Systems Applications DEXA 2018 held in Regensburg Germany in September 2018. The 35 revised full papers presented together with 40 short papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 160 submissions. The papers of the first volume discuss a range of topics including Big data analytics, data integrity and privacy, decision support systems, data semantics, cloud data processing, time series data, social networks, temporal and spatial databases and graph data and road networks. The papers of the second volume discuss a range of the following topics: Information retrieval, uncertain information, data warehouses and recommender systems, data streams, information networks and algorithms, database system architecture and performance, novel database solutions, graph querying and databases, learning, emerging applications, data mining, privacy and text processing. Improving enterprise business process management systems Alexander Samarin, 2009-10-06 The Times Index, 2011 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Banking Information Index, 2004 The Digital Banking Revolution Luigi Wewege, Michael C. Thomsett, 2019-12-02 Emergent innovative financial technologies are profoundly changing the way in which we spend, move and manage our money unlike ever before and traditional retail banks are facing stiff competition. The global financial crisis in 2007-2009 led to large losses and even the collapse of a significant number of established banks shaking the trust of financial customers worldwide. The Digital Banking Revolution is an insightful look at how financial technology and the rapid rise of financial technology companies have brought welcome changes offering flexibility to the banking industry. The book offers a unique perspective on the consumerization of retail banking services. It delves into the many changes that financial innovations have brought about in banking: the main financial disruptors, the new era of banking on the go and financial innovations from countries around the world, before concluding with a discussion on the future of banking including optimizing structures, new strategies for business outcomes and human resources in the digital era. Marketing Rosalind Masterson, David Pickton, 2010-09-13 Electronic Inspection Copy available for instructors here. A very good course support that also offers students interesting and updated case studies to study in groups during tutorials. This book provides a good balance of theoretical concepts and managerial insights to offer the students a comprehensive introduction to the vast subject of marketing. Veronique Pauwels Delassus IESEG School of Management. The Second Edition of Marketing An Introduction gives students embarking on an introductory marketing course at undergraduate level a clear and accessible grounding in theory and brings the principles of marketing to life by illustrating their practical applications through numerous examples and case studies. Each chapter contains activities, focus boxes and self-test questions encouraging you to take an active role and apply what you've learned to your own experience. The book covers the marketing environment, making sense of markets and buyer behaviour, the marketing mix, and managing marketing. Packed with activities and applications, it integrates the principles of marketing theory with the practice of marketing in the real world. Marketing challenges in each chapter illustrate decisions that face practitioners day to day, encouraging students to reflect on how they would handle situations in their future careers. A focus on CRM, ethical focus, B2B focus, and global focus boxes present hot topics in marketing and help you to relate these to students' own experience. End of chapter mini case studies featuring a range of organizations, products, and techniques provide further illustrations of marketing in practice. Designed specifically for students new to Marketing, the Second Edition of this much-loved book provides students with all they need to know to succeed on their introductory course.
