The Perfect Profile Blue Print

There are more than 350 million professionals on LinkedIn. To stand out, you need to pay great attention to creating a profile. In this section, you'll learn how that's done.

Headline 120 characters

This is the most important aspect of the profile! Be succinct, creative, and include key terms that make it easy for others to define your industry and your role within.

Name

Include your first, last, and middle name (if applicable). This is not the place for nicknames or humorous references to job titles (such as "sales rockstar" or "developer ninja").

Dos and don'ts of LinkedIn profile photos

Do's

Get a professional photographer

It's worth the investment to get a professional headshot. Your profile picture is your first impression.

Look personable

You don't want to look like a robot. Smile and show your personality. People want to connect with you.

Use most of the frame

Your face should be centered, taking up most of the frame. Avoid too much background or too much headroom.

Choose a familiar picture

Keep your picture familiar. Use a photo that you've used in other contexts. It's easier for people to recognize you.

Don'ts

Be professional

Avoid anything that might be considered unprofessional, including alcohol, drugs, or inappropriate language.

Balance formality

Don't be too formal or too casual. Find a balance that works for your industry and personality.

Leave fido out

It's a nice touch, but leave your dog out of your LinkedIn profile picture.

Keep the background neutral

Don't let a busy background distract from your face. A neutral background is best.
