Kotz, Terrence McDonough, Michael Reich, 1994-08-26 The social structure of accumulation SSA approach seeks to explain the long term fortunes of capitalist economies in terms of the effect of political and economic institutions on growth rates This book offers an ideal introduction to this powerful tool for understanding capitalist growth analysing the social and economic differences between countries and the reasons for the successes and failures of institutional reform The contributors cover a wide range of topics including the theoretical basis of the SSA approach the postwar financial system Marxian and Keynesian theories of economic crisis labour management relations race and gender issues and the history of institutional innovation Combining newly written essays with classic articles of the SSA school the book examines the international economy and the economies of Japan South Africa and Puerto Rico as well as the United States

Cultivating Crisis Douglas L. Murray, 1994 Since World War II the Green Revolution has boosted agricultural production in Latin America and other parts of the Third World with money technical assistance and other forms of aid from United States development agencies But the Green Revolution came at a high price massive pesticide dependence that has caused serious socioeconomic and public health problems and widespread environmental damage In this study Douglas Murray draws on ten years of field research to tell the stories of international development strategies pesticide problems and agrarian change in Latin America Interwoven with his considerations of economic and geopolitical dimensions are the human consequences for individual farmers and rural communities This highly interdisciplinary study integrating the perspectives of sociology ecology economics political science and public health adds an important voice to the debate on opportunities for and obstacles to more lasting and sustainable development in the Third World It will be of interest to a wide audience in the social and environmental sciences

Investing for a Lifetime Richard C. Marston, 2014-06-05 Investing for a Lifetime is designed to make saving and investing understandable to the investor Wharton Professor Richard C Marston 2014 recipient of the Investment Management Consultants Association s prestigious Matthew R McArthur Award guides an investor through the main investment decisions throughout a lifetime Investing for a Lifetime shows how younger investors can set savings goals how both younger and older investors can choose investment portfolios to achieve these goals how investors can sustain spending once reaching retirement Younger and older investors alike should understand savings goals that will provide enough income to sustain spending in retirement They should devise rates of saving that allow them to reach their goals by the time of retirement Though retirement is often the main goal of investing it s not the only one Marston discusses how funding a child s education or saving for a down payment for a home affects overall saving Sensible investing is also necessary for savings goals to be realized Investing need not be complicated but Marston explains that a diversified portfolio should include a mix of different types of U S stocks foreign stocks real estate as well as bonds He describes each of these asset classes and shows how they fit in an investor s portfolio He shows how investors can monitor the performance of their portfolios by establishing benchmarks for each asset class to judge how well their investments are doing He focuses particular attention on those investors nearing retirement In today s low interest rate environment he discusses whether it is possible to fund retirement from interest and dividends alone He shows how savings combined with Social Security can fund retirement spending And he asks how the New Normal of lower returns might force investors to save more than in past decades and to spend less in retirement than in the past Investing for a Lifetime is for investors who want to understand more about the savings and investment process particularly those who worry about whether their retirement savings will last a lifetime A People and a Nation Study Guide, Volume 2, Fifth Edition Norton,1998-12 Following Marx Michael A. Lebowitz,2009 Combining Marx's focus upon the totality and its appearance as capitals in competition with specific applications in political economy Following Marx demonstrates how the failure to understand Marx's method has led astray many who consider themselves Marxists The Making of Economic Society Robert L. Heilbroner,William S. Milberg,2002 With its roots in history and eyes on the future this book traces the development of our economic society from the Middle Ages to the present offering a balanced perspective of why our economy is the way it is and where it may be headed It explores the catalytic role past economic trends and dynamics particularly capitalism have played in creating the present challenges we face and offers suggestions on how we may deal with them most effectively in the future Chapter topics include the economic problem the premarket economy the emergence of market society the industrial revolution the great depression the rise of the public sector modern capitalism emerges in Europe the golden age of capitalism the rise and fall of socialism the globalization of economic life and why some nations remain poor For individuals interested in the economic history of the U S Empire City David M. Scobey,2002 For generations New Yorkers have joked about The City's interminable tearing down and building up The city that the whole world watches seems to be endlessly remaking itself When the locals and the rest of the world say New York they mean Manhattan a crowded island of commercial districts and residential neighborhoods skyscrapers and tenements fabulously rich and abjectly poor cheek by jowl Of course it was not always so New York's metamorphosis from compact port to modern metropolis occurred during the mid nineteenth century Empire City tells the story of the dreams that inspired the changes in the landscape and the problems that eluded solution Author David Scobey paints a remarkable panorama of New York's uneven development a city building process careening between obsessive calculation and speculative excess Envisioning a new kind of national civilization bourgeois urbanists attempted to make New York the nation's pre eminent city Ultimately they created a mosaic of grand improvements dynamic change and environmental disorder Empire City sets the stories of the city's most celebrated landmarks Central Park the Brooklyn Bridge the downtown commercial center within the context of this new ideal of landscape design and a politics of planned city building Perhaps such an ambitious project for guiding growth overcoming spatial problems and uplifting the public was bound to fail still it grips the imagination Immigration
