Mapel, 1992 This is the first comprehensive study of how different ethical traditions deal with the central moral problems of international affairs Using the organizing concept of a tradition it shows that ethics offers many different languages for moral debate rather than a set of unified doctrines Each chapter describes the central concepts premises vocabulary and history of a particular tradition and explains how that tradition has dealt with a set of recurring ethical issues in international relations Such issues include national self determination the use of force in armed intervention or nuclear deterrence and global distributive justice International Criminal Law, Volume 1: Sources, Subjects and Contents M. Churchill has achieved an unparalleled reputation as a scholar activist and analyst of indigenous issues in North America Here he explores the history of holocaust and denial in this hemisphere beginning with the arrival of Columbus and continuing on into the present He frames the matter by examining both revisionist denial of the nazi perpetrated Holocaust and the opposing claim of its exclusive uniqueness using the full scope of what happened in Europe as a backdrop against which to demonstrate that genocide is precisely what has been and still is carried out against the American Indians Churchill lays bare the means by which many of these realities have remained hidden how public understanding of this most monstrous of crimes has been subverted not only by its perpetrators and their beneficiaries but by the institutions and individuals who perceive advantages in the confusion In particular he outlines the reasons underlying the United States s 40 year refusal to ratify the Genocide Convention as well as the implications of the attempt to exempt itself from compliance when it finally offered its endorsement In conclusion Churchill proposes a more adequate and coherent definition of the crime as a basis for identifying punishing and preventing genocidal practices wherever and whenever they occur Ward Churchill enrolled Keetoowah Cherokee is Professor of American Indian Studies with the Department of Ethnic Studies at the University of Colorado Boulder A member of the American Indian Movement since 1972 he has been a leader of the Colorado chapter for the past fifteen years Among his previous books have been Fantasies of a Master Race Struggle for the Land Since Predator Came and From a Native Son Boundaries and Justice Sohail H. Hashmi,David Miller,2021-05-11 Despite the supreme political and economic significance of boundaries and ongoing challenges to existing national boundaries scant attention has been paid to their ethics This volume explores how diverse ethical traditions understand the political and property rights reflected in territorial and jurisdictional boundaries It is the first book to bring together thinkers from a range of traditions both religious and secular to discuss the ethics of boundaries Each contributor represents a tradition s views on questions surrounding the use of boundaries to delimit property and political rights What does it mean to own something What resources should not be privately owned What justifies the erection of political boundaries between one people and another How hard should such boundaries be What rights extend to minorities within a state Should territorial boundaries coincide with social ones Does national autonomy have an ethical basis or is it an aspect of modern power politics Should we aim for a more inclusive community than that afforded by modern nation states Cross chapter dialogue and a substantive conclusion draw out similarities and differences among the traditions represented traditions that include Christianity classical liberalism Confucianism international law Islam Judaism liberal egalitarianism and natural law In addition to the editors the contributors are Nigel Biggar Joseph Boyle Joseph Chan Russell Hardin Will Kymlicka Loren Lomasky Robert McCorquodale Richard B Miller David Novak Sulayman Nyang Michael Nylan Raul C Pangalangan Daniel Philpott Jeremy Rabkin Hillel Steiner M Raquibuz Zaman and Noam J Zohar Illusion of the Peoples Omar Dahbour,2003-01-01 In this book Omar Dahbour examines all of the arguments that have been given for national self determination whether by international lawyers
