The Americans, 2005 The Americans: Reconstruction Through the 20th Century Holt McDougal, 2002 The Americans McDougal-Littell Publishing Staff, 2002-03-13 National Medievalism in the Twenty-first Century Matthias D. Berger, 2023 How ideas and ideals of an imagined protean national Middle Ages have once again become a convergence point for anxieties about politics history and cultural identity in our time and why After a period of abeyance the link forged in the nineteenth century between the Middle Ages and national identity is increasingly being reclaimed with numerous groups and individuals mining an imagined medieval past to present ideas and ideals of modern nationhood Today s national medievalism asserts itself at the interface of culture and politics in literature and television programming in journalism and heritage tourism and in the way political actors of various stripes use a deep past that supposedly proves the nation s steady exceptionalism in a hectic globalised world This book traces these ongoing developments in Switzerland and Britain two countries where the medieval past has recently been much invoked in negotiations of national identity independence and Euroscepticism Through comparative analysis it explores examples of reemerging stories of national exceptionalism stories that ironically echo those of other nations The author analyses depictions of Robert the Bruce and Wilhelm Tell medievalism in the discourse surrounding Brexit as well as at the Welsh Senedd novels like Paul Kingsnorth s The Wake community based art such as the Great Tapestry of Scotland and elaborate public commemorations of Swiss victories and defeats in battle Basing his critical readings in current theories of cultural memory heritage and nationalism the author explores how the protean national Middle Ages have once again become a convergence point for anxieties about politics history and cultural identity in our time and why Taiwan During the First Administration of Tsai Ing-wen Gunter Schubert, Chun-yi Lee, 2021-10-21 This book offers a substantive assessment of the first Tsai Ing wen administration investigating different policy fields and issues from 2016 to 2020 prior to Tsai s election for a second term Providing a balanced account of government performance under Tsai s Ing wen s reign chapters in this edited volume combine theory and extensive empirical data to highlight both achievements and shortfalls of her administration Chapters range comprehensively from topics of the implementation of same sex marriage curriculum reform transitional justice industrial policy and pension reform which have been celebrated by domestic Tsai Ing wen supporters but have also met with considerable opposition from within Taiwanese society Externally cross strait relations the New Southbound Policy and the triangular relationship with China and the USA which embodied major challenges for Tsai s first administration are also analysed as key reference points throughout Featuring contributions from twenty six internationally renowned Taiwan scholars Taiwan During the First Administration of Tsai Ing wen is an essential resource for students and scholars of Taiwanese politics and society cross strait relations and international relations Eye Contact Jane Lydon, 2006-01-25 A historical ethnography of photographs as a colonial tool and as reappropriated by the indigenous population from the 1860s through the 1920s and in the present Ideal Minds

Michael Trask, 2020-11-15 Following the 1960s that decade's focus on consciousness raising transformed into an array of intellectual projects far afield of movement politics The mind's powers came to preoccupy a range of thinkers and writers ethicists pursuing contractual theories of justice radical ecologists interested in the paleolithic brain seventies cultists and the devout of both evangelical and New Age persuasions In Ideal Minds Michael Trask presents a boldly revisionist argument about the revival of subjectivity in postmodern American culture connecting familiar figures within the seventies intellectual landscape who share a commitment to what he calls neo idealism as a weapon in the struggle against discredited materialist and behaviorist worldviews In a heterodox intellectual and literary history of the 1970s Ideal Minds mixes ideas from cognitive science philosophy of mind moral philosophy deep ecology political theory science fiction neoclassical economics and the sociology of religion Trask also delves into the decade's more esoteric branches of learning including Scientology anarchist theory rapture prophecies psychic channeling and neo Malthusianism Through this investigation Trask argues that a dramatic inflation in the value of consciousness and autonomy beginning in the 1970s accompanied a growing argument about the state's inability to safeguard such values Ultimately the thinkers Trask analyzes John Rawls Arne Naess L Ron Hubbard Hal Lindsey Philip Dick Ursula Le Guin Edward Abbey William Burroughs John Irving and James Merrill found alternatives to statism in conditions that would lend intellectual support to the consolidation of these concepts in the radical free market ideologies of the 1980s

Diachronic and Comparative Syntax Ian Roberts, 2018-09-03 This book brings together for the first time a series of previously published papers featuring Ian Roberts' pioneering work on diachronic and comparative syntax over the last thirty years in one comprehensive volume Divided into two parts the volume engages in recent key topics in empirical studies of syntactic theory with the eight papers on diachronic syntax addressing major changes in the history of English as well as broader aspects of syntactic change including the introduction to the formal approach to grammaticalisation and the eight papers on comparative syntax exploring head movement the nature and distribution of clitics and the nature of parametric variation and change This comprehensive collection of the author's body of research on diachronic and comparative syntax is an essential resource for scholars and researchers in theoretical comparative and historical linguistics Dissertation Series Cornell University.
