Made in USA Bernadette Corporation (Collective), 2012

From 1999 to 2001 the New York based collaborative project Bernadette Corporation produced Made In USA a magazine that combined fashion art music and critique as an experiment in creating a place we can all disappear to instead of being anti everything and writing the new manifesto or instead of being pro everything and buying the latest CD Artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Peter Fend and Jutta Koether showed work and wrote alongside philosophers and critics like Sylvere Lotringer Paul Virilio and Chris Kraus For three issues Made In USA mapped out the cultural terrain for a generation of artists living in New York at a time when reactionary politics and the phenomenon of globalization reached a tipping point Badlands is pleased to reissue these seminal and historical works as hi resolution e books for a new generation of artists and readers They are all available on Apple iBooks for the iPad iTouch and iPhone Amazon Kindle and other e readers The reissue of Made In USA coincides with the first retrospective of Bernadette Corporation at Artists Space New York Bernadette Corporation 2000 Wasted Years recasts the works authored by the group since their inception in the early 90s The exhibition runs from September 9 December 16 2012 and will travel to the ICA in London in Spring 2013 Amazon com France and the Visual Arts since 1945 Catherine Dossin, 2018-09-20 Taking on the myth of France's creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945 Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schffer Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art Donald Rodney Richard Birkett, 2023-06-06 An illustrated examination of Donald Rodney's seminal digital media work Autoicon 1997 2000 Donald Rodney's Autoicon a work originally produced as both a website and CD ROM was conceived by the artist in the mid 1990s but not completed until two years after his death in 1998 Referencing Jeremy Bentham's infamous nineteenth century Auto Icon the work proposes an extension of the personhood and presence of Rodney while critically challenging dominant conceptions of the self the body and historicity Grounded in a partial collection of medical documents that constitute biomedicine's attempts to comprehensively know and maintain Rodney's body during his lifelong experience of sickle cell anaemia Autoicon pursues the artist's address from the mid 1980s onward of the British social and institutional body's cellular composition through racialized biopolitical power Autoicon consists of a Java based AI and neural network that engages the user in text based chat and provides responses by drawing from a dense body of data points related to Rodney and his work including documentation of artworks medical records interviews images notes and video Pulling both from this internal archive and the external archive of the Internet a montage machine composes constantly mutating images according to a rule based system established around Rodney s working process In this One Work edition curator Richard Birkett traces the distinct contemporary presence of Autoicon and the ideas and relations that emerged around its conception before and after Rodney s death particularly linking the work to the artist s seminal 1997 exhibition 9 Night in Eldorado Birkett addresses Autoicon as both an index of entangled social and material relations around Rodney a form of dispersed memory and a vector of critical creative production that continues to resonate with contemporary artistic practices and radical thought While attuned to late twentieth century discourse around the body s dissolution into the virtual and the technological potential for extending consciousness in its content and structure Autoicon locates these discourses of the human and posthuman in relation to the durable productive forces of post Enlightenment racialization and ableism The workings of the mind that Autoicon presents are intrinsically tied to Rodney s wider use in his work of bodily matter and genealogically bound to a Black history of displacement dispossession and resistance experienced physiologically socially and familially by the artist Autoicon offers up a counter manifestation of the subject as formed and multiplied through temporal disjuncture affectability and acts of preservation care and collectivity
