Between Seasons Devotions For Those Who Wait For Spring:

Between Seasons Emily Cook, 2014-10-21 There is a time when all looks to be lost There is life silenced a sleep that no one can disturb There is a time for cold quiet and waiting My friend buried her father this year My father buried his sister These days with little sun come relentlessly and the cold gets into our bones But that time is a season a mere season Soon our Lord will speak and that season will end And you shall know that I am the LORD when I open your graves and raise you from your graves O my people Ezekiel 37 13 We cannot rouse the trees nor can we rouse ourselves or our loved ones from the sleep of death But like the trees we can receive life when God pours it out on us We receive it today we who are living and even after our mouths are silenced for a time He will cause us to receive it again Join me here between seasons as we wait in hope for the coming of Jesus
