Dog Eat Dog Nicholas Mhlongo, 2004 Dingz is an average Wits student struggling with money partying with his friends picking up girls skipping lectures making up elaborate excuses for missing exams. A bright articulate guy Dingz and his circle of friends sit around drinking and discussing current affairs. Aids racism South African politics and history in between some hair raising adventures like being kidnapped by taxi drivers contracting gonorrhea or trying to fake a death certificate. A constant backdrop is the subtle and not so subtle racism of the university which threatens to exclude him financially. This is an authentic witty slice of life set at the time of the first democratic elections full of interesting perceptions and vivid descriptions and well drawn and believable characters. Dingz is an interesting and plausible chap intelligent and likeable but no saint. His anger at racism is sometimes over the top but certainly not hard to understand and his cynicism in using the race card is amusing. Sometimes he is unpleasant sometimes silly. Tipping out an old name on a birthday card to give to his new girlfriend but frequently charming. A complex multi faceted personality with plausible flaws and strengths
