Playing the Changes Darius Brubeck, Catherine Brubeck, 2024-07-23 Catherine and Darius Brubeck's 1983 move to South Africa launched them on a journey that helped transform jazz education. Blending biography with storytelling, the pair recount their time at the University of KwaZulu Natal where they built a pioneering academic program in jazz music and managed and organized bands, concerts and tours around the world. The Brubecks and the musicians faced innumerable obstacles from the intensification of apartheid and a lack of resources to the hardships that forced even the most talented artists to the margins. Building a program grounded in multi-culturalism, Catherine and Darius encouraged black and white musicians to explore and expand the landscape of South African jazz together. Their story details the sometimes wily, sometimes hilarious problem-solving necessary to move the institution forward while offering insightful portraits of South African jazz players at work on stage and providing a soundtrack to the freedom struggle and its aftermath. Frank and richly detailed, Playing the Changes provides insiders' accounts of how jazz intertwined with struggle and both expressed and resisted the bitter unfairness of apartheid-era South Africa.

The Spirit of Freedom Charles Villa-Vicencio, 2023-09-01 This collection of interviews explores the role of religion in the lives of eminent South Africans who led the struggle against apartheid: Nelson Mandela, Chris Hani, Desmond Tutu, Nadine Gordimer and seventeen other political, religious and cultural leaders. They share the beliefs and values that informed the moral positions they adopted, often at great cost. From all ethnic, religious and political backgrounds, these men and women have shaped one of the greatest political transformations of the century. What emerges from the interviews are reflections on all aspects of life in an embattled country. There are stories of the homelands and townships and tales of imprisonment and exile. Dedicated communists relate their intense youthful devotion to Christianity. Muslim activists discuss the complexity of their relationships with their communities. As the respondents grapple with difficult questions about faith, politics and authority, they expose a more personal picture of their daily lives, their pasts and of the enormous conflicts that arise in a society that continually strains the moral fiber of its citizens. Taken together, these interviews reveal the many faceted vision that has fueled South Africa's struggle for democracy. This collection of interviews explores the role of religion in the lives of eminent South Africans who led the struggle against apartheid: Nelson Mandela, Chris Hani, Desmond Tutu, Nadine Gordimer and seventeen other political, religious and cultural leaders.

Boekmark, 1996 Mathematics Education in a Context of Inequity, Poverty and Language Diversity Mamokgethi Phakeng, Stephen Lerman, 2016-06-28 This volume is dedicated to the career of Jill Adler and the role she has played in growing mathematics education research in South Africa and beyond. Her work epitomises what is referred to as the engaged scholar, i.e. doing rigorous and theoretically rich research at the cutting edge of international work in the field which at the same time contributes to critical areas of local and regional need in education. Jill is one of the world's leading experts in mathematics education research and her exemplary career is a continuous source of inspiration for generations of researchers and students The chapters in this volume are authored by Jill s former PhD students a few select colleagues from different parts of the world that she collaborated with as well as leading scholars who she worked with in PME ICMI and in her many international assignments In essence this volume celebrates Jill s contribution not only to mathematics education but also to our contributions as her friends and colleagues Topics covered include language and mathematics teacher education and the dilemma of an activist researcher engaging in issues that matter hugely to the participants in the research students and teachers in post apartheid schooling whilst also setting up the separation that is needed for good research
