Teaching by Lesson Planning Harvey B. Firestone, 1997 A guide to developing the abilities to teach impart ideas organize speeches inculcate learning address audiences of all kinds and adhere to the point of the topic with timely planned presentations

Financial Literacy Education Chris Arthur, 2012-10-13 Consumer financial literacy education often appears as a helpful commonsense solution to neoliberalism and the individualization of responsibility for economic risk However in Financial Literacy Education Neoliberalism the Consumer and the Citizen this particular literacy is argued to be both ineffective and unjust Socially created poverty unemployment and economic insecurity require more than individual consumer solutions they require collective responses by engaged critical citizens Utilizing concepts from Marx Foucault Bourdieu and Baudrillard this book challenges those who claim that there is no alternative to neoliberal insecurity and reduce education to a consumerist training of entrepreneurial consumer citizens who can continually invest in themselves and the market Through an analysis of consumer financial literacy education's present and historical supports as well as its likely effects this book argues that the choice before us is not financial illiteracy or financial literacy Rather the choice is between subjugation to the requirements of perpetual competition or overcoming alienation insecurity and exploitation aims the critical financial literacy education outlined at the end of this book supports This book will appeal to those interested in understanding the conditions of our freedom in an increasingly financialized world critical educators philosophers and sociologists of education and financial literacy researchers

Cultivating Achievement, Respect, and Empowerment (CARE) for African American Girls in PreK-12 Settings Dr. Patricia J. Larke, Dr. Gwendolyn Webb-Hasan, Dr. Jemimah L. Young, 2016-12-01 chapters discuss issues impacting the education of African American girls and many of challenges that they encounter during their schooling experiences The chapters were written by 24 authors including a school superintendent university administrator and professors classroom teacher mother and a 10th grade African American student The 20 chapters of the book are organized into four sections Section one introduces the book and provides critical perspectives Section Two focuses on Curriculum and instruction Section Three shares information from significant stakeholders while the last section includes other schooling experiences and ends with a powerful poem by a tenth grade African American girl entitled Proud The forward of the book written by a Japanese American scholar Valerie Pang denotes the urgency of the book noting that the book warms the heart The book ends with an epilogue written by an African American scholar Tyrone Howard who has a vested interest in African American males He shares commanding interest in this scholarship because what happens to African American females impacts African American males and the entire African American community

Journal of Health, Physical Education, Recreation, 1952 Case Studies in Coaching Ethics Anthony Parish, Timothy Baghurst, 2023-09-15 Coaches are placed in a myriad of ethical decision making situations Making decisions such as playing time boosters parents social media power differentials scholarships and relationships are just a few examples of what a coach may need to navigate While many day to day situations are easily resolved some are not Therefore how and by what process should a coach make these decisions This book presents a variety of cases based on true stories that present some of the ethical decisions coaches must make across high school collegiate and professional sports Using a sequential system of less to more complicated 40 case studies are presented across the sports spectrum that coaches have experienced This is a key component of the book Although names and situations have been changed these cases have happened and provide real applicability to coaches In addition each case may contain multiple situations perhaps with no right answer that test a coach s value system and ability to prioritize actions Questions are provided at the end of each case that allow for reflection The primary audience for this book includes current coaches as well as students in coach education programs at both the undergraduate and graduate levels

Case Studies in Coaching Timothy M. Baghurst, 2017-06-30 The nearly two dozen case studies in this timely book will help future and current coaches of school sports develop successful strategies to avoid or overcome challenges and become more aware of the need to remain professional and consider the implications of their actions Based on real life situations it considers ethical and practical dilemmas from sports in locations across the country These compelling case studies illustrate everyday scenarios such as teaching style conflicts scheduling issues cheating confidentiality decisions and working with over involved parents that occur in school coaching and athletics The cases and thought provoking discussion questions that follow allow readers to work through the types of dilemmas they will face in their coaching careers and then carefully formulate their responses and decisions A resource list for each case allows readers to further explore the issues and develop their personal responses to each situation An accompanying instructor s manual available upon adoption includes possible responses to all discussion questions
