This interpretation, upheld in the landmark Supreme Court case McCulloch v. Maryland, set a precedent for using implied powers to address evolving national needs.

Implied powers are used extensively in regulating the economy. Congress has broad powers to regulate interstate commerce, and implied from this is the authority to pass laws affecting labor conditions, environmental protection, and consumer safety, even if these specific areas aren't mentioned in the Constitution.

Additionally, foreign policy involves implied powers. Though the Constitution empowers Congress to declare war, the president, as Commander-in-Chief, has implied powers to conduct
