

Chapter 2- The Constitution

BEFORE THE CONSTITUTION

- The British constitution- series of docs starting w/ Magna Carta, some individual rights
- Life & representation in colonial America
- European influence theory- more well-educated leaders because of their visits to Europe
 - G.W. was self-educated and didn't visit Europe like the other founding fathers, doing so to plan the country out
- French & Indian War (1757-1763) G.B. needed more $ from the war so they increased taxes in the colonies to recoup the losses
 - Taxes & coercion
- Towards independence
 - Direct taxation by G.B. upset colonists & they limited colonists' representation
 - BUT relatively peaceful AT FIRST
 - Felt they were G.B. citizens and were so used to their own prerogatives
 - G.B.'s response- you're part of the whole empire and Parliament represents that so its indirect
- Middle-class established a rebellion based on the idea that they're being taxed more w/ little representation
 - Silly, no? It was because of the American experience
 - Revolution was remarkable- sat & debated & created a nation
- Declaration of Independence- ideals, what they wanted, aspirational
 - Jefferson relied on John Locke- radical citing right to revolt & unalienable rights
 - Declared 13 colonies to be "free & independent states" with the rights because the king was a tyrant
 - Issue of slavery- revamped doc because at first it indirectly shunned slavery
 - Needed governing doc under Continental Congress
- Articles of Confederation- serious limitation of powers, difficulty in passing laws, & made no judicial branch
 - Recipe for disaster because it required unanimous consent for adoption
 - Formally established U.S.A.
 - Colonists wrote their state constitutions
 - Weak national government led to revolt-> Shays Rebellion for people wanting freedom from national authority, no power to tax & regulate trade
 - Discussion in Annapolis convention
 - Too much freedom!

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

- The delegates came together originally to amend but became the constitution; Constitutional convention was a practical process
- Large vs. small states- how do we show differences but also make it fair?
