Confessions Dun Compositeur:

Confessions d'un compositeur John CAGE, 2013-03-28T00:00:00+01:00 Dans cette conférence donnée New York en 1948 John Cage jette un regard lucide sur les débuts de sa carrière ponctués d'anecdotes défiantes. C'est avec la plus totale sincérité que John Cage décrit ici le cheminement qui l'a conduit devenir compositeur. Il débord d'abord commença par des études d'architecture ce sujet il raconte non sans humour un voyage en France pays qui lui sembla totalement recouvert d'architecture gothique. Mais très vite il se tourne vers la peinture et la composition. Il détaille ses influences ses préoccupations et ses envies. L'éventail de ses références est cet regard vertigineux les mouvements de la danse moderne le jazz les futuristes italiens ou encore les rites des Indiens Navajo. Sans crier gare il livre l'œuvre de manière extrêmement limpide une théorie de la musique avant tout tirée de son expérience. On y apprend notamment que sa musique était diffusée la radio durant la guerre pour démontrer que l'Amérique aimait l'Orient. John Cage se révèle ici outre un maître du hasard la manière de Duchamp un immense pédagogue.

The volume is dedicated to the memory of the late Calvin S Brown of the University of Georgia author of the first systematically conceived survey Music and Literature A Comparison of the Arts 1948 of the branch of interart studies now generally known as Melopoetics. Part One consists of six original contributions by experts from Austria Belgium France and the United States. Authored by a novelist and a composer scholar respectively the first two essays Jean Libis's Inspiration musicale et composition littéraire Reflexions sur un roman schubertien and David M Hertz's The Composer's Musico Literary Experience Reflections on Song Writing focus not surprisingly on the creative process. The third piece Francis Claudon's review of the pertinent research done between 1970 and 1990 complements the honoree's analogous report on the preceding decades reprinted in the present volume whereas the fourth Jean Louis Cupers Métaphores de la lumière et de l'ombre Regards sur l'évolution des études musico littéraires surveys the plethora of metaphorical applications in music and literature of two significant natural phenomena the one acoustic and the other optical. Linked to each other the two remaining papers Ulrich Weisstein's The Miracle of Interconnectedness Calvin S Brown a Critical Biography and Walter Bernhart's A Profile in Retrospect Calvin S Brown as a Musico Literary Scholar offer critical accounts of the honoree's theoretical and methodological stance as viewed in the first case from a biographical angle and in the second in the light of subsequent scholarly practice Part Two bundles eleven of Professor Brown s previously uncollected articles covering a period of nearly half a century of significant scholarly activity in the field The selection demonstrates Brown s poignant interest in transpositions d art exemplifying the musicalization of literature in the formal and structural rather than thematic domain as culminating in his trenchant critique of music in poetry as understood somewhat na vely by Mallarm and his critics and to a slightly lesser extent by his translation of Josef Weinhebers variations on Friedrich H lderlin s ode An die Parzen Just as Professor Brown s successive anatomies of melopoetic theory and practice illustrate his steadily growing sophistication and the maturing of his mind so his Bloomington lecture The Writing and Reading of Language and Music Thoughts on Some Parallels Between two Artistic Media reflects his unique ability to assemble and organize vast materials and comprehensive data in such a way as to reveal the underlying pattern
