Digging In Trench Raiders 2:

Stealth Raiders Lucas Jordan, 2017 In 1918 a few daring low ranking Australian infantrymen alone among all the armies on the Western Front initiated stealth raids without orders These stealth raiders killed Germans captured prisoners and advanced the line sometimes by thousands of yards They were held in high regard by other men of the lower ranks and were feared by the Germans facing them Who were these stealth raiders and why did they do it What made Australian soldiers take on this independent and personal type of warfare Using their firsthand accounts as well as official archives and private records Lucas Jordan pieces their stories together A gripping account of the crucial summer on the Western Front Stealth Raiders A Few Daring Men in 1918 considers the stealth raiders war experience and training the unprecedented conditions at the front and the morale of the German Army in 1918 Lucas Jordan argues that bush skills and the bush ethos central to Australian civil society with its emphasis on resourcefulness and initiative made stealth raids a distinctively Australian phenomenon Depressingly often we see books promoted as the forgotten story or the untold story Yet Stealth Raider tells such a story of a few daring Australian infantry who so demoralised their opponents that they feared to enter the line against them Bill Gammage Revise HSC Modern History Core in a Month Ron Ringer, 2001 The Welsh Regiment of Foot Guards, 1915-1918 Charles Humble Dudley Ward, 1936 Letters to His Wife Robert Ernest Vernède, 1917 The Torch We Throw: The Dundurn WWI Historical Library Brereton Greenhous, James McWilliams, R. James Steel, Kevin R. Shackleton, George H. Cassar, Bruce Cane, 2014-07-23 The giant conflagration of the First World War created the world we live in today and its history is replete with stirring battles mind boggling strategies and geopolitical manoeuvring However the real story was lived in the trenches of Europe and the lonely households of those left behind The stories of this period are full of tragedy anger and loss but also inspirational courage This special five book bundle presents some of these stories from brave Canadian contributions to the battlefields at Ypres and Amiens to the specific untold story of Canada's unheralded 58th Division to an analysis of the myth and legend of air ace Billy Bishop to the voice of one single soldier Deward Barnes told through his diary These books provide new and enlightening perspectives on the war Amiens Hell in Flanders Fields It Made you Think of Home The Making of Billy Bishop Second to None The Battle of Neuve Chapelle: Britain's Forgotten Offensive of 1915 Paul Kendall, 2016-07-31 Neuve Chapelle a lost battlefield is now opened up for the explorer to learn more about the actions that took place there In Early 1915 the British decided to take the offensive for the first time in the war against German positions in Northern France The initial objective was a bulge about one mile across in their lines at Neuve Events which took place here early in 1915 are described in detail and show why this almost forgotten battle set the course of the war An Inventory of the Ancient Monuments in Wales and Monmouthshire ...: County of Carmarthen Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments and Constructions in Wales and Monmouthshire, 1917 It Made You Think of Home Bruce Cane, George Frederick Barnes, 2004-08-01 We took our positions five kneeling and five standing we got the order to fire One blank and nine live rounds I did not have the blank That is the voice of Deward Barnes an unwilling but dutiful member of the firing squad that shot Harold Lodge one of 25 Canadians executed during the First World War In this diary we hear something that is otherwise gone forever the authentic voice of the First World War soldier Everyman in khaki Fully annotated so that everyone today can understand the nuance of each entry the Barnes diary takes us into the trenches and the firing lines of the Western Front like no other first hand Canadian account of that terrible war can Like any trained infantryman Deward could tell the kick of a live round from a blank one and that kick he bestows on us with each turn of the page The Illustrated War News ,1915 World War II Infantry Tactics Stephen Bull,2021-05-27 Despite all technological advances final mastery of any battlefield depends upon the tight knit group of footsoldiers trained to manoeuvre shoot and dig in This first of a two part study examines the methods by which the Western infantry of World War II the German British and US armies actually brought their firepower to bear Drawing upon period training manuals for the evolving theory and on personal memoirs for the individual practice this first book covers the organization and tactics of the squad of ten or a dozen men and the platoon of three or four squads The text is illustrated with contemporary photographs and diagrams and with colour plates bringing to life the movement of soldiers on the battlefield 2/ Auckland, 1918;

Colonel Sir Stephen Shepherd Allen KBE CMG DSO,2015-11-06 Includes the First World War Illustrations Pack 73 battle plans and diagrams and 198 photos Colonel Sir Stephen Allen recounts with justified pride the history of the 2nd Battalion of the Auckland Regiment 2 Auckland for short during the last year of the war The 2nd Battalion formed part of the New Zealand Division and had seen much action since arriving in France in 1916 at the Battles of the Somme Fleubaix Messines and at Third Ypres However the signal services of the 2 Auckland in 1918 are fully deserving of this separate tome during the German Spring Offensives they were thrown into the line to stem the enemy advance and were the first troops to make a morale raising counterattack at La Signy Farm As the German Army started to crack in the summer of 1918 2 Auckland where among the foremost pursuers at Welsh Ridge Le Quesnoy The Die-Hards in the Great War: Vol. 2 Everard

Wyrall,2013-01-21 The Die Hards is the nickname of the Middlesex Regiment earned at the battle of Albuera in the Peninsular War in May 1811 The Regiment was one of five that had four regular battalions before the outbreak of war it also had two Special Reserve battalions 5th and 6th and four Territorial battalions 7th to 10th During the course of the war another thirty nine battalions were formed making the Regiment the second largest along with the King s Liverpool though not all battalions survived to the end of the war twenty four of them went abroad serving on the Western Front Gallipoli Italy Macedonia Mesopotamia India Egypt Palestine Gibraltar and Siberia Losses amounted to 12 720 81 Battle Honours and 5 VCs were awarded The Middlesex were in it right from the start the first soldier of the BEF to be killed was L Cpl Parr 4th Middlesex on 21 August 1914 and the first officer to be killed was from the same battalion Major W H Abell at Mons on 23 August This is not a history that deals with each battalion independently there are too many of them The narrative describes the fortunes of the twenty four active service battalions with very good maps in the various theatres of war though mainly on the Western Front and on every page there is in the margin the date of the action or event being described and the battalion or battalions involved The first volume covers 1914 to the end of 1916 and the second takes up the story from the beginning of 1917 to the armistice including a chapter on operations in Siberia and Murmansk involving the 25th Battalion which didn't get home till September 1919 Speaking of his battalion 25th the CO said One and all behaved like Englishmen the highest eulogy that can be passed upon the conduct of men Sentiments like that expressed today would almost get you clapped in irons There is no Roll of Honour nor list of Honours and Awards There is a very useful appendix listing all the active service battalions with the brigades and divisions to which they were allocated with any subsequent changes and the theatres in which they served History of the Guards Division in the Great War, 1915-1918 Cuthbert Morley Headlam,1924
