Chapter 1 Cold War Conflicts Paper:

Post-Cold War Conflict Deterrence Naval Studies Board, Commission on Physical Sciences, Mathematics, and Applications, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, National Research Council, 1997-04-16 Deterrence as a strategic concept evolved during the Cold War During that period deterrence strategy was aimed mainly at preventing aggression against the United States and its close allies by the hostile Communist power centers the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR and its allies Communist China and North Korea In particular the strategy was devised to prevent aggression involving nuclear attack by the USSR or China Since the end of the Cold War the risk of war among the major powers has subsided to the lowest point in modern history Still the changing nature of the threats to American and allied security interests has stimulated a considerable broadening of the deterrence concept Post Cold War Conflict Deterrence examines the meaning of deterrence in this new environment and identifies key elements of a post Cold War deterrence strategy and the critical issues in devising such a strategy It further examines the significance of these findings for the U S Navy and Marine Corps Quantitative and qualitative measures to support judgments about the potential success or failure of deterrence are identified Such measures will bear on the suitability of the naval forces to meet the deterrence objectives The capabilities of U S naval forces that especially bear on the deterrence objectives also are examined Finally the book examines the utility of models games and simulations as decision aids in improving the naval forces understanding of situations in which deterrence must be used and in improving the potential success of deterrence actions Defense White Paper, 1993 The Politics of Coercion Ellwood P. Hinman, 2002 Warfare and the Third World R. Harkavy, S. Neuman, 2016-04-30 This book is designed to help the reader better understand the conduct of war by focusing on the how not the why of warfare It examines a number of crucial dimensions of contemporary armed conflict such as the strategies operations tactics doctrines and weapons of conventional and low intensity war military geography the cultural underpinnings of strategies and tactics arms resupply security assistance and foreign intervention Privatising the Military Use of Force Frank Heemann, 2009-03-20 Master s Thesis from the year 2006 in the subject Law Comparative Legal Systems Comparative Law grade 80 University of Cape Town Universit t Kapstadt 170 entries in the bibliography language English abstract This paper will explore responsibilities that might arise under international law from the privatisation of the military use of force The aim of the paper is threefold first it explores which responsibilities states and international organizations incur under international law if they use the services of Private Military Companies PMCs ie if they privatise the use of military force Second the paper will use this survey of responsibilities to address the question whether there are at present substantial gaps in international law that need to be filled in order to deal adequately with the outsourcing of military force Third the paper will then suggest how to deal with such gaps The paper will be structured as follows Part II introduces the private military industry The focus here will be on a categorization of the industry and a description of its impact on the common understanding of warfare which assumes a state monopoly on the use of force An understanding of the different categories within the industry and the industry's impact on warfare is essential for addressing the legal question of whether PMCs are sufficiently covered by the existing international laws Part III deals with the responsibility of states arising from privatising the use of force this part will first provide a brief categorization of states that might incur responsibility and then introduce as a point of departure and mental guideline the accepted rule of state responsibility whereby a state incurs responsibility for the commission of international wrongful acts For the evaluation of a state responsibilities part III will then proceed to introduce states international obligations that are most likely to be violated in connection with the privatisation o
