Chapter 1mixed Review Mail Colonial:

Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism, 1946-1959 Jon Cowans,2015-05-15 The first transnational history of cinema's role in decolonization Using popular cinema from the United States Britain and France Empire Films and the Crisis of Colonialism 1946 1959 examines postwar Western attitudes toward colonialism and race relations Historians have written much about the high politics of decolonization but little about what ordinary citizens thought about losing their empires Popular cinema provided the main source of images of the colonies and according to Jon Cowans in this far reaching book films depicting the excesses of empire helped Westerners come to terms with decolonization and even promoted the dismantling of colonialism around the globe Examining more than one hundred British French and American films from the post World War II era Cowans concentrates on movies that depict interactions between white colonizers and nonwhite colonial subjects including sexual and romantic relations Although certain conservative films eagerly supported colonialism Cowans argues that the more numerous liberal colonialist productions undermined support for key aspects of colonial rule while a few more provocative films openly favored anticolonial movements and urged internal decolonization for people of color in Britain France and the United States Combining new archival research on the films production with sharp analysis of their imagery and political messages the book also assesses their reception through box office figures and newspaper reviews It examines both high profile and lesser known films on overseas colonialism including The King and I Bhowani Junction and Island in the Sun and tackles treatments of miscegenation and internal colonialism that appeared in Westerns and American films like Pinky and Giant The first truly transnational history of cinema's role in decolonization this powerful book weaves a unified historical narrative out of the experiences of three colonial powers in diverse geographic settings Philatelic Literature Review ,1991 Hybrid Computational Intelligence Siddhartha Bhattacharyya,Václav Snášel,Indrajit Pan,Debashis De,2019-09-30 Hybrid computational intelligent techniques are efficient in dealing with the real world problems encountered in engineering fields The primary objective of this book is to provide an exhaustive introduction as well as review of the hybrid computational intelligent paradigm with supportive case studies In addition it aims to provide a gallery of engineering applications where this computing paradigm can be effectively use Finally it focuses on the recent quantum inspired hybrid intelligence to develop intelligent solutions for the future The book also incorporates video demonstrations of each application for better understanding of the subject matter Railway and Engineering Review ,1894

New Directions on Hybrid Intelligent Systems Based on Neural Networks, Fuzzy Logic, and Optimization Algorithms Patricia Melin,Oscar Castillo,2024-04-08 This book contains a collection of papers focused on hybrid intelligent systems based on soft computing techniques In this book new directions on the theoretical developments of fuzzy logic neural networks and optimization algorithms as well as their hybrid combinations are offered In addition the abovementioned methods are discussed in application areas such as control and robotics pattern recognition medical diagnosis decision making prediction and optimization of complex problems There are a group of papers with the main theme of type 1 type 2 and type 3 fuzzy logic which basically consists of papers that propose new concepts and algorithms based on type 1 type 2 and type 3 fuzzy logic and their applications There is also a set of papers that offer theoretical concepts and applications of meta heuristics in different areas Another group of papers outlines diverse applications of hybrid intelligent systems in real problems There are also some papers that present theory and practice of neural networks in different applications Finally there are papers that offer theory and practice of optimization and evolutionary algorithms in different application areas

Dis/Consent KelleyAnne Malinen,2019-04-29T00:00:00Z Sexual violence is prevalent in our society We know this directly because of the courage survivors have shown in facing their perpetrators in courts online and in the public eye But society is hesitant incapable or unwilling to hold offenders to account they keep their jobs or get promoted to powerful positions and survivors frequently end up being on trial themselves Furthermore mainstream discourse and thinking about sexual violence and consent are limited to problematic op eds oversimplified viral videos or tweets These will not end sexual violence The contributors to Dis Consent argue that the conversations happening today around consent and sexual violence ignore and erase the multiple forms of oppression that are part and parcel of sexual violence They highlight the relationships between our social structures social institutions and individual experiences of sexual consent and sexual violence And because sexism racism misogyny homophobia transphobia and ableism are deeply intertwined with sexual violence it will not be undone without systemic anti oppressive decolonizing change Refusing to reduce intersectionality to a hasty footnote this volume examines the construction of sexual violence and consent at diverse intersections of identity and includes a diversity of perspectives and positionalities rarely found in conversations about sexual violence and sexual consent Performance and the Afterlives of Injustice Catherine Cole,2020-10-05 In the aftermath of state perpetrated injustice a facade of peace can suddenly give way and in South Africa and the Democratic Republic of Congo post apartheid and postcolonial framings of change have exceeded their limits Performance and the Afterlives of Injustice reveals how the voices and visions of artists can help us see what otherwise evades perception Embodied performance in South Africa has particular potency because apartheid was so centrally focused on the body classifying bodies into racial categories legislating where certain bodies could move and which bathrooms and drinking fountains certain bodies could use and how different bodies carried meaning The book considers key works by contemporary performing artists Brett Bailey Gregory Maqoma Mamela Nyamza Robyn Orlin Jay Pather and Sello Pesa artists imagining new forms and helping audiences see the contemporary moment as it is an important intervention in a country long predicated on denial They are also helping to conjure anticipate and dream a world that is otherwise The book will be of particular interest to scholars of African studies black performance dance studies transitional justice as well as theater and performance studies British Food Journal and Analytical Review ,1929
