The Reform of Catholicism, 1480-1620 Guy Bedouelle,2008 Guy Bedouelle s Reform of Catholicism 1480 1620 introduces nuances to earlier books on this subject by demonstrating how reform within the Roman Church owed much to a ferment and coordination of action emanating from its traditional geographic and jurisdictional centre Rome But after showing how the Council of Trent legislated reform in the Church and empowered structures to carry it out Bedouelle also highlights the actions of dedicated men and women that brought about a renewed spirit in the Church and in society a Catholicism which at least in some aspects paralleled the way other Christians constituted a Lutheranism a Calvinism or an Anglicanism The

Reform of Christian Doctrine in the Catechisms of Peter Canisius Thomas Flowers, S.J.,2023-07-03 The catechisms of Peter Canisius reveal the contours of the struggle within the Catholic Church to reframe Christian identity in response to the Protestant Reformation Canisius published his first catechism in 1555 and immediately achieved phenomenal publishing success Yet his catechisms received neither endorsement nor approbation from Rome Canisius s catechesis proposed a confident vision of Christian identity grounded in the practice of Catholic piety The Roman Curia increasingly conceived of catechesis as a defensive bulwark against Protestant assault Although Canisius s catechisms often appear in scholarship as representatives of a combative post Reformation style of defending Catholic orthodoxy the combat in which they actually engaged was internal to the Catholic Church over how to reframe post Reformation Catholic identity The Figure of the
