Beyond the Textbook David Kobrin, 1996 Describes a method of teaching history in which students act as historians researching documents and primary sources provides accounts of how this curriculum worked in actual classrooms and includes sample handouts and excerpts from student writings Oxford Textbook of Migrant Psychiatry Dinesh Bhugra, 2021-02-04 Migrant psychiatry is an evolving subdiscipline within cultural psychiatry that deals with the impact of migration on the mental health of those who have migrated and those who work with these groups and provide services to them Stress related to migration affects migrants and their extended families either directly or indirectly The process of migration is not just a phase but leads on to a series of adjustments including acculturation which may occur across generations Factors such as changes in diet attitudes and beliefs and overall adjustment are important in settling down and making the individuals feel secure This period of adjustment will depend upon the individual migrant s pre migration experiences migration process and post migration experiences but also upon an individual s personality social support and emotional response to migration Socio demographic factors such as age gender educational and economic status will all play a role in post migration adjustment In order to understand the impact on individuals not only the type of migration and different stressors but also the types of psychological mechanisms at a personal level and the resources and processes at a societal level need to be explored Despite the number of refugees and asylum seekers around the world increasing at an astonishing rate the mental health needs of migrants are often ignored by policy makers and clinicians The Oxford Textbook of Migrant Psychiatry is designed to serve as the comprehensive reference resource on the mental health of migrants bringing together both theoretical and practical aspects of the mental health needs of refugees and asylum seekers for researchers and professionals Individual chapters summarise theoretical constructs related to theories of migration the impact of migration on mental health and adjustment collective trauma individual identity and diagnostic fallacies The book also covers the practical aspects of patient management including cultural factors ethnopsychopharmacology therapeutic interaction and therapeutic expectation and psychotherapy Finally the book will examine special clinical problems and special patient groups Part of the authoritative Oxford Textbooks in Psychiatry series this resource will serve as an essential reference for psychiatrists mental health professionals general practitioners primary care physicians social workers policy makers and voluntary agencies dealing with refugees and asylum seekers The ESC Textbook of Intensive and Acute Cardiovascular Care Marco Tubaro,Pascal Vranckx,Susanna Price,Christiaan Vrints,2015-02-26 Are you a member of ACCA Go to the ACCA website to find out about special offers on The ESC Textbook of Intensive and Acute Cardiovascular Care and to buy your copy today The ESC Textbook of Intensive and Acute Cardiovascular Care is the official textbook of the Acute Cardiovascular Care Association ACCA of the ESC This new updated edition continues to comprehensively approach all the different issues relating to intensive and acute cardiovascular care The textbook is addressed to all those involved in intensive and acute cardiac care from cardiologists to emergency physicians and healthcare professionals The chapters cover the various acute cardiovascular diseases that need high quality intensive treatment but also organisational issues cooperation among professionals and interaction with other specialities in medicine The largest section of the textbook is devoted to non cardiac disease which could acutely involve the cardiovascular system Other noteworthy chapters are on ethical issues which are so important in acute cardiac care such as patient safety donor organ management and palliative care A unique characteristic of the textbook is the presence of a whole section devoted to biomarkers which underline the growing importance of laboratory medicine in the field of intensive and acute cardiac care A particular asset of the textbook is the digital version available on Oxford Medicine Online which has additional online features including an extra chapter on lung ultrasound and many more images and videos as well as a full list of references from all chapters The online version is updated by the same authors on a yearly basis and is available with the print version and separately on a subscription basis allowing easy access to content in digital and mobile optimised format The textbook aligns directly with the core training curriculum for ACCA This print edition of The ESC Textbook of Intensive and Acute Cardiovascular Care comes with access to the online version on Oxford Medicine Online for as long as the edition is published by Oxford University Press By activating your unique access code you can read and annotate the full text online follow links from the references to primary research materials and view enlarge and download all the figures and tables Blackening of the Bible Michael Joseph Brown,2004-10-08 Michael Brown offers an overview of the history of the development of African American and Afrocentric biblical interpretation He then discusses how such scholarship began as an attempt to correct the biases African Americans perceived to be manifest in European and Euro American biblical scholarship This corrective he says quickly developed a life of its own and Afrocentric biblical interpretation developed its own interpretive voice and style Brown also examines Afrocentrism and the blackening of the Bible offering a critique of the color politics of Afrocentric criticism He examines the evolution of womanism as a method of biblical interpretation and explores and criticizes the ways that ideological and postcolonial criticism has contributed to Afrocentric biblical criticism Finally he presents the challenges he thinks confront the practice of such criticism and he advances a new paradigm for the project that will put it in conversation with a wider audience of biblical scholars classicists historians and theologians Michael Joseph Brown is Assistant Professor of New Testament and Christian Origins Candler School of theology Emory University in Atlanta Georgia He is the author of What They Don't Tell You A Survivor's Guide to Academic Biblical Studies and The Lord's Prayer through North African Eyes A Window into Early Christianity The New York Times Index, 1918 Congressional Record United States.
