Concept Development Key Momentum:

The Strategic Management of Health Care Organizations Peter M. Ginter, 2013-03-05 A structured strategic management approach is what is needed to tackle the revolutionary change the health care system has been experiencing. Today health care organizations have almost universally embraced the strategic perspective first developed in the business sector and now have developed strategic management processes that are uniquely their own. Health care leaders have found that strategic thinking, planning, and managing strategic momentum are essential for coping with the dynamics of the health care industry. Strategic Management has become the single clearest manifestation of effective leadership of health care organizations. The 7th edition of this leading text has been revised and updated to include a greater focus on the global analysis of industry and competition and analysis of the internal environment. It provides guidance on strategic planning, analysis of the health services environment, both internal and external, and lessons on implementation. It also looks at organizational capability, sustainability, CSR, and the sources of organizational inertia and competency traps. Systems Approaches and Their Application Mats-Olov Olsson, Gunnar Sjöstedt, 2006-01-16 This book describes the application of systems thinking across a broad field of cases representing research, teaching, decision support, and construction. All cases are presented by experts who have actually been involved in the activities they describe. The broad selection of cases captures the great variation of systems thinking and how it is integrated into models and theories and solid knowledge pertaining to different substantive areas.

Concept Learning; Designs for Instruction Peter H. Martorella, 1972 Accelerating Transportation Project and Program Delivery Dennis Keck, 2010 NCHRP Report 662 describes how selected transportation agencies have reduced the time required to complete the project delivery process. This process takes new or renewed transportation facilities and services from conception to completion, ready for users. Project delivery is a primary indicator of an agency's effectiveness. Individual highway and other transportation projects are developed under programs intended to implement agency and legislative initiatives and other public policy. The way programs are organized and managed can determine the speed and efficiency of project development. Accelerating program functions can speed up project delivery. This report describes the experiences of eight state departments of transportation (DOTs) that made improvements in their project delivery and the lessons to be learned from their experiences The information will be useful to DOT managers seeking to ensure that their agencies organization policies and program operations facilitate project delivery Chemica Scripta ,1986 Proceedings of the 26th Intersociety Energy Conversion Engineering Conference ,1991 Technology for Large Space Systems ,1983
