

Chicago Manual of Style (CMS)

Author & Date/References

---

The Chicago Manual of Style 16th edition [2010] , also known as CMS, was used to create this guide, which illustrates examples in the author-date/references format. Material requiring a citation uses an in-text citation within your paper along with a full bibliographic entry in the reference list which occurs at the end of your paper. For each author-date citation in the text, there must be a corresponding entry in the reference list for that source. For additional examples , see Chicago Manual of Style, 16th edition - on Reserve at Cook Library 92253 U69 2010, and also available online.

In-text Citations

Within the in-text citation, the author's last name is listed first, followed by the year of publication of the source, then the page number noting the location of the cited material within the original source. For periodical articles, a month and day may be included after the title. In this guide, the in-text citation examples are shown within parentheses and follow the bibliographic citations listed below.

Reference list citations for books should include the following information in this order whenever possible: {p. 693-694}

1. Full name of author(s) or editor as author or corporate/institutional author
2. Publication year
3. Title and subtitle
4. Editor, compiler, or translator in addition to author
5. Edition (only if not the first edition)
6. Volume information: total number of volumes of an entire multivolume work cited, individual volume of an multivolume work, title of individual volume if different from set
7. Series title and number (if applicable)
8. Facts of publication: city and publisher
9. Page information (if applicable)
10. For electronic books: URL or DOI [digital object identifier], or type of medium (Kindle, etc.)

***Remember to single space after all commas, colons, and periods.

Note: Single spacing is used in this guide for brevity; the 2.8 Formatting rule on p. 59 of CMS states that all references and the paper itself should be double spaced. The final authority for the bibliographic form (including spacing) in your paper is your professor.

Examples: Books

Book with One Author

Smith, James. 2009. Treading Lightly: How to Navigate in Today's World. New York: Walker Press.

In-text citation: (Smith, Bales, and Fowler 2009, 126)

Book with More than One Author

Note: With multiple authors, invert (put last name first) the first author only.

Franklin, Jean, Helen Smith, and Patrice Ferguson. 2012. Marketing for Business. New York: Doubleday.

In-text citation: (Franklin, Smith, and Ferguson 2012, 126)
