Children Coloring Page On Obedience:

Shepherding a Child's Heart Tedd Tripp, 2005-07-01 Shepherding a Child's Heart is about how to speak to the heart of your child. The things your child does and says flow from the heart. Luke 6:45 puts it this way: out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. Written for parents with children of any age, this insightful book provides perspectives and procedures for shepherding your child's heart into the paths of life. In this revised edition of Shepherding a Child's Heart, Dr. Tedd Tripp not only draws on his thirty years' experience as a pastor, counselor, school administrator, and father, but he also shares insights gained in many years of teaching this material in conferences worldwide, providing more valuable help for parents.

The Routledge International Handbook of Dialectical Thinking Nick Shannon, Michael F. Mascolo, Anastasia Belolutskaia, 2024-07-23 The Routledge International Handbook of Dialectical Thinking is a landmark volume offering a multidisciplinary compendium of the research theory and practice that defines dialectical thinking, its importance, and how it develops over the lifespan. For the first time, this handbook brings together theory and research on dialectical thinking as a psychological phenomenon from early childhood through the human lifespan. Grounding dialectical thinking in multiple philosophical traditions stemming from antiquity, it explores current psychological models of such thought patterns and shows how these can be applied in everyday life and across multiple disciplines, including philosophy, physics, mathematics, and international relations. The handbook explains the nature of dialectical thinking, why it is important, and how it can be developed in children and in adults. It concludes with a final chapter depicting a discussion among the authors exploring the question: how could dialectical thinking be the antidote to dogma? Written by a group of international scholars, this comprehensive publication is an essential reference for researchers and graduate students in psychology and the social sciences, as well as scholars interested in integrating different perspectives and issues from a wide variety of disciplines.
