

CHILD VISITATION, DEMAND LETTER

Date: September 17, 2020

To,
[ATTN: CUSTODIAL PARENT]
[ADDRESS]
[POSTAL CODE]
[COUNTRY]

Subject: Notice to Exercise Court-Ordered Possession and Access (Visitation)

Dear Mr./Mrs. [Custodial Parent],

I plan to see our child(ren) according to the court-ordered possession and access (visitation) schedule as written in the most recent court order which was signed by the judge in our case in Cause No. [Cause Number]

I will be at:

[Your residence at [Time, including a.m. or p.m.]]
[The school where our child(ren) is/are enrolled, when school is dismissed.]
[Choose this option only if it is already ordered by the Court]
[Other: Time and place where your visitation is ordered to take place]

I will be at this location on [Location] to [Date designated in the court order for you to take possession] exercise my rights to see our child(ren).

You should have our child(ren) ready for my visitation as provided for in the court order. I will return our child(ren) to you as required by the court order.

I intend to continue exercising my possession and access (visitation) rights according to the court ordered schedule from now on.

Interfering with my court-ordered access and visitation rights could result in a contempt action being filed against you. Failure to pay child support is not a justification or defense to a charge of contempt for interference with court-ordered visitation rights. If a court finds you in contempt for denying my court-ordered access to our child(ren) the court may sentence you to jail time, and order you to pay a fine, attorney's fees and court costs. It would be best for everyone, especially our child(ren), to avoid such litigation.

Sincerely,

Best regards,
