Section 2.1

<https://open.lib.umn.edu/sociology/chapter/2-1-sociology-as-a-social-science/>

Read through the section and answer the following questions. You must highlight your responses.

1. When we say that sociology is a social science, we mean that it uses the Scientific Method to try to understand the many aspects of society that sociologists study.
2. An important goal is to yield Generalizations—general statements regarding trends among various dimensions of social life.
 - a. Stereotypes
 - b. Generalizations
 - c. Common sense
 - d. Personal experiences
3. Why is sociology so different from other social sciences like physics? Sociology is different from other social sciences because Sociology can help us understand the social forces that affect our behavior, beliefs, and life chances, but it can only go so far. Physics is more like science because it teaches us about how the universe behaves.
4. List the 5 sources where individuals get their knowledge: Social Media, Personal Experience, the Scientific Method, Traditions, Expert Authorities.
5. Although personal experiences are very important, not everyone has the same personal experience.
6. Why is common sense not a reliable source of knowledge?
 - a. Not everyone has it
 - b. It varies from culture to culture
 - c. It can contradict itself
 - d. Only women have it (actually, this could be right...)
7. What are the two issues with the way the media covers topics and news? You don't even know if it's fake or real. So many media pages and News are sometimes fake news or false information to make u think a certain way. Expert authorities, such as teachers, parents, and government officials, are a fourth source that influences our understanding of social reality.
8. Why can't individuals always trust "expert authorities"? They can't trust "expert authorities" because the evidence may not be updated to the fullest or it can also be false. Tradition is generally valuable, because a society should always be aware of its Roots. However, traditional ways of thinking about social reality often turn out to be inaccurate and incomplete.
9. The scientific method is followed in the natural, physical, and social sciences to help yield the most accurate and reliable conclusions possible, especially ones that are free of bias or methodological errors.
10. Which of the following is NOT one of the four steps in the scientific method?
 - a. Formulating a theory
 - b. Measuring and gathering data
 - c. Analyzing data
 - d. Publishing your research

National education ; ch. 6. Religion* Francis Wrigley Hirst, 1927 Diagrams of Power in Benjamin and Foucault Mark Laurence Jackson, 2022-09-04 This book's overarching premise is that discussion and critique in the discourses of architecture and urbanism have their primary focus on engagements with form particularly in the sense of the question as to what planning and architecture signify with respect to the forms they take and how their meanings or content what is contained is considered in relation to form as container While significant critical work in these disciplines has been published over the past 20 years that engages pertinently with the writings of Walter Benjamin and Michel Foucault there has been no address to the co incidence in the work of Benjamin and Foucault of an architectural figure that is pivotal to each of their discussions of the emergence of modernity The arcade for Benjamin and the panoptic prison for Foucault have a parallel role In Foucault's terms panopticism is a diagram of power The parallel for Benjamin would be his understanding of constellation In more recent architectural writings the notion of the diagram has emerged as a key motif Yet and in as much as it supposedly relates to aspects of the work of Foucault along with Gilles Deleuze this notion of diagram amounts for the most part to a thinly veiled reinstatement of geometry as idea This book redresses the emphasis given to form within the cultural philosophy of modernity and particularly with respect to architecture and urbanism inflects on the agency of force that opens a reading of their productive capacities as technologies of power It is relevant to students and scholars in poststructuralist critical theory architecture and urban studies This is a book about Foucault and Benjamin and it is grounded in a deep knowledge of and reflection upon their works but it is also underpinned by an impressive erudition There are reflections on Hegel and Heidegger central to the author and Derrida along with Kierkegaard and others This leads to a rich and suggestive discussion in staging a spatial architectural political conversation between Foucault and Benjamin Anonymous Reviewer Mark Jackson's Diagrams of Power in Benjamin and Foucault The Recluse of Architecture juxtaposes and interrogates its two leading actors so as to draw from and through them a theory of architecture which is inseparable from its recluse In doing so it elaborates a series of complex connections with their various interlocutors and inspirations Hegel Heidegger Derrida the

Kabbalah Agamben allegory Marx Deleuze Klossowski tragedy capitalism modernity and so on The list is long and impressive This is not only done with an extremely high degree of scholarship but is presented in a light lucid and very compelling manner in a voice both personal and authoritative The recluse is the figure of mimesis itself the appearance of a withdrawal always already a ruin This book not only contributes a highly astute reading of its philosophical objects but it enacts the ontology of the recluse through its own unfolding simultaneously revealing and withholding the meaning of architecture as such so that we not only understand its meaning but feel the pulsing differential of the book's object as if it were alive within us Stephen Zepke Independent Researcher Vienna

Michigan Farmer, 1929 Understanding Michael Chabon Joseph Dewey, 2014-04-22 An exploration of Chabon's career long fascination with the consolations and dangers of the imagination Pulitzer Prize winning author Michael Chabon has emerged as one of the most daring writers of American fiction in the post Pynchon era Joseph Dewey examines how Chabon's narratives have sought to bring together the defining elements of the two principal expressions of the American narrative that his generation inherited the formal extravagances of postmodernism and the compelling storytelling of psychological realism Like the audacious self conscious excesses of Pynchon and his postmodern disciples Dewey argues Chabon's fictions are extravagant often ironic experiments into form animated by dense verbal and linguistic energy As with the probing texts of psychological realism by Updike and his faithful Chabon's fictions center on keenly drawn recognizable characters caught up in familiar heartbreaking dilemmas enthralling storylines compelled by suspense enriched with suggestive symbols and humane themes about love and death work and family and sexuality and religion Evolving over three decades this hybrid fiction has made Chabon not only one of the most widely read composers of serious fiction of his guild but one of the most critically respected writers as well thus positioning Chabon as a representative voice of the generation Dewey's study the first to examine the full breadth of Chabon's fiction from his landmark debut novel The Mysteries of Pittsburgh to his controversial 2012 best seller Telegraph Avenue places Chabon's fictional sensibility for all its hipness within what has been the defining theme of American literature since the provocative romances of Hawthorne and Melville the anxious tension between escape and engagement between the sweet centripetal pull of the redemptive imagination as a splendid if imperfect engine of retreat and the harsh centrifugal pull of real life itself recklessly deformed by the crude handiwork of surprise and chance and unable to coax even the simplest appearance of logic Ontario Library Review and Book-selection Guide ,1920 Luther League Review ,1920 Potentials of Childhood: A historical view of early experience William Fowler,1983 Potentials of Childhood: Studies in early developmental learning William Fowler,1983
