

Harlem Renaissance Poetry

This page lists the poetry reading you will do in this unit, which also includes: a few historically important essays/narratives, a really good PBS video about the era, some later African-American poetry, and our reading of Zora Neale Hurston's novel Their Eyes Were Watching God. We'll also be taking a general look at poetry, which we haven't worked with for a while. The second page of this handout lists a writing assignment you'll be doing soon.

HOMEWORK for block day 2/4-5: A 1-page journal (casual) in which you reflect on having read a bunch of these – you liked (and why?), disliked, noticed, compare to (songs, other poems, anything?). Reflect deeply. (You should also be making some notes about the texts, but you'll hand in only this.)

In class, we will focus more on some of these than on others, but you are responsible for reading them all, closely.

To back up these readings, please keep notes in your notebook about your reading -- reflection, observation of poetic effect (figurative language, irony, thematic connections with other things we've read, etc.), and so forth. Read and think!

The source of the poem is in parentheses after the author's name; for example, (D, 1893) means page 1893 of Textbook D.
