Marino, 2019-02-05 This book chronicles the dawn of the global movement for women s rights in the first decades of the twentieth century The founding mothers of this movement were not based primarily in the United States however or in Europe Instead Katherine M Marino introduces readers to a cast of remarkable Latin American and Caribbean women whose deep friendships and intense rivalries forged global feminism out of an era of imperialism racism and fascism Six dynamic activists form the heart of this story from Brazil Bertha Lutz from Cuba Ofelia Domínguez Navarro from Uruguay Paulina Luisi from Panama Clara González from Chile Marta

Vergara and from the United States Doris Stevens This Pan American network drove a transnational movement that advocated women s suffrage equal pay for equal work maternity rights and broader self determination Their painstaking efforts led to the enshrinement of women s rights in the United Nations Charter and the development of a framework for international human rights But their work also revealed deep divides with Latin American activists overcoming U S presumptions to feminist superiority As Marino shows these early fractures continue to influence divisions among today s activists along class racial and national lines Marino s multinational and multilingual research yields a new narrative for the creation of global feminism The leading women introduced here were forerunners in understanding the power relations at the heart of international affairs Their drive to enshrine fundamental rights for women children and all people of the world stands as a testament to what can be accomplished when global thinking meets local action America Pathways to the Present ,1995 McDougal Littell World History: Patterns of Interaction Holt McDougal,2002-01-07 Study Guide With Map Exercises for Use with the Unfinished Nation Alan Brinkley,Harvey H.
