Ziegenfuss, 2008-08-07. American citizens assume that the future for this country will be a future much like the past, beautiful in many respects. In part one, this book examines the reasons for future building and the processes for doing so through interactive public sector-private sector dialogue and by applying methods of continuous improvement, reengineering and visioning. In part two, Ziegenfuss presents scenarios of America's future that include the country's points of decay, trends, vision and strategies in each of the
