Christian Writers Style Guide:

The Christian Writer's Manual of Style Zondervan, 2010-05-11 An essential tool for writers editors proofreaders designers copywriters production managers and marketers too The Christian Writer's Manual of Style is an essential tool not only for writers of religious materials but for their editors proofreaders designers copywriters production managers and even marketers Rather than simply repeating style information commonly available in standard references this newly updated and expanded edition includes points of grammar punctuation usage book production and design and written style that are often overlooked in other manuals It focuses on information relating to the unique needs and demands of religious publications such as discussions on how to correctly quote the Bible how to capitalize and use common religious terms and how to abbreviate the books of the Bible and other religious words Also included are rarely found items such as an author's guide to obtaining permissions guidelines for using American British and Mid Atlantic styles discussions of inclusive language profanity and ethnic sensitivities discussions of Internet and computer related language style a list of problem words style issues regarding words from major world religions a discussion of handling brand names in text a list of common interjections issues of type design paper copy fit This edition has been completely updated since the 1988 edition and contains more than twice as much information as the previous edition This is the most detailed and comprehensive guide of its kind

The Christian Writer's Manual of Style Robert Hudson, 2016-08-30 The standard style guide of the Christian publishing industry The Christian Writer's Manual of Style 4th Edition compiled by veteran Zondervan editor Robert Hudson contains clear guidance on style questions related to religious writing including many topics not addressed in other references or online Nearly half of this fourth revision is made up of new material including information about turning blogs into books the effects of digital media on writing adverbial doubles vanishing accents word choice strategies endorser guidelines and much more It also contains an all new Word List which makes up more than a third of the book The most needful information remains entries on capitalization abbreviation citations fictional dialogue and more but it has all been updated to keep pace with changes in English language usage This fourth edition also corresponds with The Chicago Manual of Style 16th Edition 2010 though it isn't afraid to chart new territory where that reference is unhelpful on issues of religious writing Comprehensive yet easy to use The Christian Writer's Manual of Style 4th Edition is a go to resource for Christian authors pastors teachers copy writers editors proofreaders publishing and ministry professionals executive assistants and students anyone who writes or edits as a part of their work or study and for grammar aficionados everywhere

The Christian Writer's Manual of Style, 5th Edition Robert Hudson, 2026-05-26 This handy one stop reference now in its fifth edition provides solid answers to writers editors and proofreaders most pressing questions about language style and usage highlighting issues common to religious writing
