The Christian Science Monitor Linda K. Fuller, 2011-09-12 This text provides a unique examination of The Christian Science Monitor a highly respected venerable news publication that has survived over a century of changes and challenges The Christian Science Monitor is one of the world's leading journalistic publications having won multiple Pulitzer prizes for its reporting CSM is innovative and forward thinking as well it was one of the first newspapers to provide an online copy of its daily reporting in 1996 well before the popularization of the Internet But just like other publications The Christian Science Monitor will need to continue to reinvent itself in order to stay relevant and solvent in the face of plummeting readership numbers corporate takeovers and a widespread assumption that all of today's news sources are biased and inaccurate This book provides a thorough discussion of CSM's treatment of sensitive topics like terrorism international crises gender issues and sexual orientation The paper's attitudes toward ethnicity ethics economics philosophy and racism are also profiled The conclusion provides readers with an opportunity to draw upon their new knowledge of The Christian Science Monitor's past to project its direction for the future Answers to Questions Concerning Christian Science Edward Ancel Kimball, 1909

Engaged Journalism Jake Batsell, 2015-02-03 Engaged Journalism explores the changing relationship between news producers and audiences and the methods journalists can use to secure the attention of news consumers Based on Jake Batsell's extensive experience and interaction with more than twenty innovative newsrooms this book shows that even as news organizations are losing their agenda setting power journalists can still thrive by connecting with audiences through online technology and personal interaction Batsell conducts interviews with and observes more than two dozen traditional and startup newsrooms across the United States and the United Kingdom Traveling to Seattle London New York City and Kalamazoo Michigan among other locales he attends newsroom meetings combs through internal documents and talks with loyal readers and online users to document the successes and failures of the industry's experiments with paywalls subscriptions nonprofit news live events and digital tools including social media data driven interactives news games and comment forums He ultimately concludes that for news providers to survive they must constantly listen to interact with and fulfill the specific needs of their audiences whose attention can no longer be taken for granted Toward that end Batsell proposes a set of best practices based on effective sustainable journalistic engagement Christian Science Monitor
