Truth About Money Timsimon Kimani, 2021-10-01 Have you ever wondered why schools don't teach about money? There is a reason for this. It's because the super rich do not want it taught. This book will open your eyes about money, its origins, how the rich think as opposed to how the poor and middle class think about money. Learn what the rich teach their children that schools don't want you to know. This is not a get rich quick scheme. This is financial intelligence to help you create the kind of wealth you can leave to your children and your children's children. Investing in your own mind is part of the process of becoming wealthy. Don't miss this opportunity to find out how money really works. Give yourself a financial education and get out of the rat race. Impact of Digitalization on Communication Dynamics Rosário, Albérico Travassos, Boechat, Anna

Carolina, 2024-12-18 In today's digital age, communication dynamics are undergoing rapid and profound changes, challenging traditional theories and practices. The rise of social media, digital platforms, and the ubiquity of smartphones has revolutionized how individuals and communities interact, share information, and shape public discourse. However, this transformation has also led to concerns about misinformation, the erosion of interpersonal relationships, and the overwhelming volume of digital content. Scholars, students, and professionals are grappling with the complexities of this new communication landscape, seeking guidance on navigating and understanding its impact. Impact of Digitalization on Communication Dynamics offers a comprehensive solution to the question of how to comprehend the full impact of this digital age on our ability to communicate. This book serves as a roadmap for understanding and adapting to the digital era by synthesizing current research, incorporating theoretical frameworks, and providing real-world examples. It delves into critical topics such as media effects, interpersonal communication, health communication, and crisis communication, offering insights and strategies for effective communication in today's digital world. Through its interdisciplinary approach, the book bridges the gap between traditional communication theories and emerging technological landscapes, empowering readers to navigate the complexities of digital communication with confidence. African Cultures and Literatures Gordon Collier, 2013

Besides searching book reviews, an interview with the writer Tijan M. Sallah, a full report on the 6th Ethiopian International Film Festival, and a stimulating selection of creative writing including a showcase of recent South African poetry, this issue of Matatu offers general essays on African women's poetry, anglophone Cameroonian literature, and Zimbabwean fiction of the Gukurahundi period, along with studies of J. M. Coetzee, Kalpana Lalji, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, Aminata Sow Fall, Wole Soyinka, and Yvonne Vera. The bulk of this issue, however, is given over to coverage of cultural and sociological topics from North Africa to the Cape, ranging from cultural identity in contemporary North Africa, two contributions on Kenyan naming ceremonies and initiation songs, and three studies of the function of Shona and Ndebele proverbs to national history in Zimbabwean autobiography, traditional mourning dress of the Akans of Ghana, and the precolonial origins of traditional leadership in South Africa. Contributors: Jude Aigbe, Agho Nasima, Ali Uchenna, Bethrand Anih, Aboneh Ashagrie, Francis T. Cheo, Gordon Collier.
