City X Guide Beijing:

Courtyard Housing and Cultural Sustainability Donia Zhang, 2016-05-13 Cultural sustainability is a very important aspect of the overall sustainability framework and is regarded as the fourth pillar alongside the other three environmental economic and social sustainability However the concept is neither fully explored nor widely accepted or recognized This book elicits the interplay of nature culture architecture and theorizes the concept of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It identifies four key themes in Chinese philosophy Harmony with Heaven Harmony with Earth Harmony with Humans and Harmony with Self along with Greek philosopher Aristotle s physics form space matter and time it sets them as criteria to evaluate the renewed and new courtyard housing projects constructed in China since the 1990s Using an innovative architectural and social science approach this book examines the political economic social and spatial factors that affect cultural sustainability Supported by a multiplicity of data including field surveys interviews with residents architects and planners time diaries drawings photos planning documents observation notes and real estate brochures the book proposes new courtyard garden house design strategies that promote healthy communities and human care for one another a concept that is universally applicable The volume is a first opportunity to take a holistic view to encompass eastern and western tangible and intangible cultures in the theorization of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It is a comprehensive contribution to architectural theory Soft Computing in Information Communication Technology Jia Luo, 2012-06-30 This is a collection of the accepted papers concerning soft computing in information communication technology All accepted papers are subjected to strict peer reviewing by 2 expert referees The resultant dissemination of the latest research results and the exchanges of views concerning the future research directions to be taken in this field makes the work of immense value to all those having an interest in the topics covered The present book represents a cooperative effort to seek out the best strategies for effecting improvements in the quality and the reliability of Neural Networks Swarm Intelligence Evolutionary Computing Image Processing Internet Security Data Security Data Mining Network Security and Protection of data and Cyber laws Our sincere appreciation and thanks go to these authors for their contributions to this conference I hope you can gain lots of useful information from the book Urban Infrastructuring Deljana Iossifova, Alexandros Gasparatos, Stylianos Zavos, Yahya Gamal, Yin Long, 2022-04-18 This book is about urban infrastructuring as the processes linking infrastructural configurations and their components with other social ecological political or otherwise defined systems as part of urbanisation and globalisation in the Global South It suggests that infrastructuring is essential to urbanisation and that it is entangled with socio spatio ecological transformations that often have negative outcomes over time Furthermore it argues that infrastructuring requires an ethical positioning in research and practice in order to enhance infrastructural sustainability in the face of intersecting environmental social and economic crises Urban Infrastructuring is developed in three parts First it identifies infrastructural entanglements across various urban and urbanising settings in the Global South Second it highlights some of the damaging processes and outcomes of urban infrastructuring and argues that the absence presence and transformation of infrastructure in the Global South reproduces socioecological injustice in the short and long term Third the book argues for a shift of infrastructuring agendas towards more just and sustainable interventions It suggests that an ethico politics of care should be embedded in systems approaches to infrastructuring in both research and practice The edited volume contains contributions from authors with backgrounds in a variety of academic disciplines from the natural and social sciences engineering and the humanities It provides valuable insights for anyone concerned with the study design planning implementation and maintenance of urban infrastructures to enhance human well being and sustainability It will be of interest to researchers and urban decision makers alike

Chinese Modernity and Global Biopolitics Sheldon H. Lu, 2007-05-31 This ambitious work is a multimedia interdisciplinary study of Chinese modernity in the context of globalization from the late nineteenth century to the present Sheldon Lu draws on Chinese literature film art photography and video to broadly map the emergence of modern China in relation to the capitalist world system in the economic social and political realms Central to his study is the investigation of biopower and body politics namely the experience of globalization on a personal level Lu first outlines the trajectory of the body in modern Chinese literature by focusing on the adventures pleasures and sufferings of the male and female body in the writings of selected authors He then turns to avant garde and performance art tackling the physical self more directly through a consideration of work that takes the body as its very theme material and medium In an exploration of mass visual culture Lu analyzes artistic reactions to the multiple uneven effects of globalization and modernization on both the physical landscape of China and the interior psyche of its citizens This is followed by an inquiry into contemporary Chinese urban space in popular cinema and experimental photography and art Examples are offered that capture the daily lives of contemporary Chinese as they struggle to make the transition from the vanishing space of the socialist lifestyle to the new capitalist economy of commodities Lu reexamines the history and implications of China's belated integration into the capitalist world system before closing with a postscript that traces the genealogy of the term postsocialism and points to the real relevance of the idea for the investigation of everyday life in China in the twenty first century

Climate-Smart Livestock Production: Strategies for Enhanced Sustainability and Resilience Oyegunle Emmanuel Oke, Victoria Anthony Uyanga, Monsuru Oladimeji Abioja, Fisayo Oretomiloye, 2025-09-08 Climate smart livestock production is essential for enhancing animal welfare ensuring food security and bolstering resilience against climate change as demand for animal sourced foods grows This field focuses on identifying sustainable strategies at all production scales from expansive commercial farms to smaller operations We seek original research and review articles that detail practices and technologies aimed at reducing greenhouse gas emissions minimizing water pollution optimizing land use and improving animal welfare in livestock systems The sector faces significant challenges from climate change including heat stress water scarcity and heightened disease risks Adopting climate smart practices such as increasing feed efficiency streamlining manure management and utilizing renewable energy are pivotal in creating more sustainable livestock systems These efforts must integrate animal welfare to ensure the sustainability and resilience of these enterprises over the long term

School-Based Curriculum in China Yunhuo Cui,Hao Lei,Wenye Zhou,2020-12-07 This book first develops a framework to understand the curriculum administration system in China It describes the historical process of localizing school based curricula as well as the significance and positioning of school based curricula and presents in detail cases of how three types of school based curriculum were developed and implemented in Chinese schools The book outlines for the first time best practices in school based curriculum development in China i e how to make a holistic curriculum plan how to design a curriculum and how to develop a course in the context of a school based curriculum By discussing these three aspects it clearly summarizes the strategies and technologies for school based curriculum development which are applicable across contexts Although the concept originated outside China school based curriculum development in China differs from that in other countries both in theory and practice This book equips readers with theoretical and practical knowledge of how to develop school based curricula and how to generate experiences for new curriculum development This timely book is a valuable resource for researchers curriculum designers school teachers and others who are interested in school based curriculum development

Urban Sustainable Development in East Asia Xiaolong Zou,2023-12-11 This book offers careful glimpse from the lenses of selected case studies of major counties in East Asia namely China and Japan to obtain insights as well as lessons regarding their perspective sustainable cities development Urban sustainability is the pillar domain for achieving overall sustainability East Asia has the world most populous countries and cities therefore it is of great importance to understand analyze and assess the sustainable urban development trends and paradigms in an East Asia setting so as to better guide the future development of sustainable cities in the region The outcomes of this book are policy relevant consultations to key stakeholders from various walks of sustainability studies

Sustainable Cultural Management Łukasz Wróblewski,Ana Gaio,Ellen Rosewall,2019-12-06 The connections between culture and sustainability have been in the public agenda since the 20th century However whilst global sustainability programmes at international institutional levels are yet to recognise the role of culture in their sustainability policies the bid albeit failed in the early 2000s to formally add culture to the trilogy of sustainability pillars economic social and environmental mobilised a new discourse for the reframing of cultural policy narrative which in turn urged a reassessment of methods of cultural management reflecting the same concerns among the sector s grassroots The idea of sustainability and culture working together and their envisioned role in future proofing society and human development captured the imagination of cultural commentators policy makers and practitioners alike keen to fulfil these principles out there in cultural organizations and events mega and small in cities and regions local and global The papers in this Special Issue reflect this appeal This publication covers a wide selection of issues related to sustainable cultural management which means that it can be recommended to a varied audience First of all it can be recommended to managers experienced in cultural management where success is measured more by the degree of mission accomplishment and the social benefits achieved rather than by profit Another group comprises the employees of cultural organizations who want to improve their knowledge of sustainable cultural management This Special Issue can also be recommended to artists researchers students state and local government employees founders and patrons of art and all those who want to understand the importance of sustainable cultural management
