Competing for Caesar Chammah J. Kaunda, Marja Hinfelaar, 2020-11-03 Competing for Caesar brings together for the first time key scholars working on various issues related to religion and public life in Zambia. They explore the interplay between religion and politics in Zambian society and how these religions manage and negotiate their identities in public life. This book analyzes recent religious dynamics in the nation's political life and considers what constructive role religion could play to promote an alternative political vision to subvert neo-colonialism. Competing for Caesar carries forward a unique commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage with the challenges and opportunities of Christianity in the Global South. The book will be of interest to scholars, professors and students in a wide range of fields. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matemba, Bruce A. Collet, 2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education (RE) across the Global South. Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South, this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject. The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections. The first three sections deal with provision, response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE. The next four sections explore young people and RE, perspectives on teachers, RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE. The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North, but the concept is also examined in historical, geographical, political, social and cultural terms, including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions. Exploring RE from local, cross-national as well as regional and sub-regional perspectives, the handbook examines RE from its diverse past, present realities and envisioned future, revealing not only tensions, contestations, injustices and inequalities of power, but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems. Social Studies in African Education Michael Bamidele Adeyemi, 2000 The Impact of the United Nations Human Rights Treaties on the Domestic Level: Twenty Years On Christof Heyns, Frans Jacobus Viljoen, Rachel Murray, 2024-02-19 This collection of chapters tracks and explains the impact of the nine core United Nations human rights treaties in 20 selected countries, four from each of the five UN regions. Researchers based in each of these countries were responsible for the chapters in which they assess the influence of the treaties and treaty body recommendations on legislation, policies, court decisions and practices. By covering the 20 years between July 1999 and June 2019, this book updates a study done 20 years ago. Annual Report Zambia. Human Rights Commission, Annual Report Zambia. Abdi,Edward Shizha, Lee Ellis,2010-06-01 Zambia the butterfly shaped central African country has a population of about 11 million people and as other Sub Saharan African countries has been trying to democratize since the early 1990s Clearly though the promise of political reform did not fulfill the expectations of the public and with about 60 percent of the population living below the poverty line many Zambians are no longer confident that more open political systems can improve their lives But the problem may not be inherent in the political process itself and could be found more in the apparent disconnection between people s needs and the way the country s affairs are run It is with respect to these and related issues that this book emphasizes the crucial relationship between education and political participation and specifically highlights citizenship education as essential for Zambia s social development Social development which should comprise inter alia the economic political and cultural wellbeing of societies can be enhanced by citizenship education which focuses on elevating people s understanding of their rights and responsibilities vis vis government institutions structures and functions Indeed it is the centrality of the political component in people s lives especially its relationship with public policy and public programs that should underline the important role of citizenship education In describing these issues the book analyzes the role of the media women s groups and youth in enhancing the political educational and by extension the economic lives of the Zambian people The book should interest students and scholars of Zambian as well as African education politics and social development It should also be useful for policy makers institutional managers and both public and para public leaders in Zambia and elsewhere in the continent The Electrical Review ,1965 Civic Education in Syllabus 21

Marc Rüdisüli,2017 In order to ensure a well functioning democracy it is necessary that citizens are able to participate properly in the political process This is of particular importance in a semi direct democracy with the right of initiative and referendum Both in politics and in a society there is a diversity of opinions and interests In order to find a solution the ability to negotiate is essential Civic education aims to give an introduction to the processes of negotiation and thus empower citizens to engage competently in democratic communities and societies However civic education is neglected in schools The harmonisation of the curricula in German speaking Switzerland has led to Syllabus 21 which also deals with civic education

Its implementation in Syllabus 21 is the main topic of this paper The theoretical background allows the reader to understand the term civic education as well as Syllabus 21 With the help of experts the implementation of civic education is analysed problems are identified and a conclusion is drawn This paper aims to provide an overview of civic education in Syllabus 21
