Remembered It Robert P. Broadwater, 2014-01-10 This is an examination of reminiscences of the primary leaders on both sides at the battle of Gettysburg and a comparison of these reminiscences to the historical record Many generals presented statements written decades after the Civil War when the Gettysburg Campaign was the topic of historical research and personal controversy This comparative history illuminates how history is shaped as well as how the famous battle unfolded

The Atlantic War Remembered John T. Mason, 1990 From the U boat plagued convoys in the North Atlantic to the beaches of Normandy and the Big Three Conference at Yalta twenty eight men and women here relive their experiences in the Allied defeat of Hitler Drawn from a vast collection of oral histories recorded by John T Mason Jr between 1960 and 1982 these extraordinary eyewitness accounts are readily available once again to the public Through an invasion commander s binoculars and a frogman s face mask readers share the horror grit and humor of combat With unqualified realism Admiral H Kent Hewitt describes the landing at French Morocco America s first major amphibious operation and Captain Phil H Bucklew recalls how one of his beach scouts at Sicily held a flashlight to mark invasion lanes while backed up against a German pillbox firing a machine gun over his head The home front gets equal attention for here too are the stories of those who supported the war effort in the United States These and other personal narratives presented make memorable reading and give far more insights into historic events than most scholarly analyses Memory and Trauma in the Postwar Spanish

Novel Sarah Leggott, Ross Woods, 2013-12-11 In recent years much Spanish literary criticism has been characterized by debates about collective and historical memory stemming from a national obsession with the past that has seen an explosion of novels and films about the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship This growth of so called memory studies in literary scholarship has focused on the representation of memory and trauma in contemporary narratives dealing with the Civil War and ensuing dictatorship In contrast the novel of the postwar period has received relatively little critical attention of late despite the fact that memory and trauma also feature in different ways and to varying degrees in many works written during the Franco years The essays in this study argue that such novels merit a fresh critical approach and that contemporary scholarship relating to the representation of memory and trauma in literature can enhance our understanding of the postwar Spanish novel The volume opens with essays that engage with aspects of contemporary theoretical approaches to memory in order to reveal the ways in which these are pertinent to Spanish novels written in the first postwar decades with studies on novels by Camilo Jos Cela Carmen Laforet Arturo Barea and Ana Mar a Matute Its second section focuses on the representation of trauma in specific postwar novels drawing on elements from trauma studies scholarship to discuss neglected works by Mercedes Salisachs Dolores Medio and Ignacio Aldecoa The final essays continue the focus on the theme of trauma and revisit works by women writers namely Carmen Laforet Rosa Chacel Ana Mar a Matute and Mar a Zambrano that foreground the experiences of female protagonists who are seeking to deal with a traumatic past The essays in this volume thus propose a new direction for the study of Spanish literature of 1940s 1950s and early 1960s enhancing existing approaches to the postwar Spanish novel through an engagement with contemporary scholarship on memory and trauma in literature
